BABSON SAYS

their company. "Front Office" interference is not tolerated. It is an ideal arrangement. This union is an example to any other group of employees who want the benefits of organization but who are afraid to become snarled up with the vicious policies of the CIO and AFofL.

Other companies have recently followed the example of the Pacific Gas and Electric employees. My fervent hope is that this independent type of union will become common in the United States. When it does, the day of the labor racketeer and gangster will be over and a big obstacle to prosperity will be removed. At a recent nationwide conference of purchasing agents, the question was asked: "What do you think of the major problem facing business today?" The answer was the necessity of amending the Wagner Labor Act in order to end this current period of labor fear.

Amend the Wagner Act

Yet despite the unfairness of the Wagner Act, I believe that it is a tremendous forward step in the social progress of the United States. Give us a Congress with some guts and the needed amendments can quickly be put into the law. Through these amendments employers and capital can be given equal protection with labor. For years labor was at the mercy of employers. Now employers are at the mercy of labor. Put these amendments into effect and each will get a square deal. When that time comes we can see the end of the unnecessary and destructive labor wars which have created great hardships to labor, forced employers into bankruptcy, and increased the cost of living for everyone.
