Dr. Townsend to be Special Guest of Multnomah County Fair August 28

Gresham, Ore., Aug. 12—Dr. Francis E. Townsend, originator of America's most famous old age pension plan, will be a special guest of honor at the 32nd annual Multnomah county fair Sunday, August 28, A. H. "Bert" Lea, secretary-manager, announced this week.

The announcement climaxes several weeks of negotiation with high Townsend officials to have the famed doctor appear at the fairgrounds on the day set aside as "Townsend Day." Townsend will address a multitude of his followers and other fair-goers from a special box in the big grandstand about 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon.

The Multnomah county fair will open its gates Tuesday, August 22, and will run for a full seven days.

Mr. and Mrs. Terchase of Detroit, Mich., former residents of this place, spent several days last week visiting Mrs. Hattie Ross.

Many of the Beaverton-Multnomah area know Mrs. Lyle H. Cobb of Watson street, Beaverton, and many have heard her on the Dr. Brock program over station KEX at eight o'clock in the morning. Tune in on that station next Wednesday and you will hear an extraordinary contralto voice. Miss Virginia Brock the pipe organist, will accompany her. Mrs. Cobb is a member of the First Church of Christ, (Christian) on Columbia street, Portland, and sings in the choir. Several Beaverton people have told of her part on this morning program at least one morning per week.
