"Sure enough, Lady, this car is always ready to Ramble because"

BEAVERTON AUTO SERVICE

keeps it in tip top repair. Their Mechanics check everything over when I drive in a couple times or more a week. It costs less to keep things up in good shape than it does to neglect and have a huge repair bill pop up unexpectedly. That's what many people say. So you just leave it to us to take care of your car and it will be ready to ramble when you most NEED it.

New Station is Well Located

The new Standard Service Station along the new highway in Beaverton immediately north of the large repair garage of Beaverton Auto Service who own it, is well located and there is plenty of space to drive in off the highway. You can get genuine Standard products and will find the young man in charge very courteous and efficient in his work. Mr. Johnson and Mr. Armistead, owners of Beaverton Auto Service have made vast improvements here since taking over the property from the Stipes this past summer and this new service station lately erected is one of the finest along the highway and is really an added feature of service to this firm. Be sure to stop and fill up your tank.

See McMahon's Windows

J. J. McMahon, realtor of Beaverton recently redecorated his display windows at the office on Broadway st., and there are several dozen of photographs of homes listed at his office. Within the border of a square Neon sign are a few of the most home-like and beautiful. The entire window depicts, by photograph, considerable of our west side beauty, as one good way of looking at it, what could be more beautiful in reality than a great area dotted with pretty homes?
