WHITFORD NEWS

Mrs. Jordan's sister, Mrs. Hattie Crittendon, spent Sunday in Portland visiting friends.

Mrs. Cook, mother of Harold and Miss Pearl Cook fell and sprained her ankle Friday.

The Whitford Women's club met at the club rooms Wednesday last with a majority of the members present. Most of the afternoon was spent in social conversation. Mrs. Averitt conducted a very interesting game in which all took part. Mrs. John Anderson won the prize by answering the most questions correctly. Mrs. Dan Polumbo served a delicious lunch.

Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Downing and Mary Frances arrived home Saturday evening from their trip begun five weeks ago. They went as far East as Abolene, Kansas, and came back by way of San Francisco and took in the fair. The weather was fine most of the way and they spent an enjoyable five weeks but missed the beautiful trees found in Oregon. In Kansas where Mrs. Downing was reared, there was not a tree growing on their old farm, not even a fruit tree, when she lived there they had a fine orchard of all varieties of fruit.

Jack Young of Oakland, California, who lived in Beaverton when a boy, is the proud father of a little daughter, Linda Ann born May 28.

Dan Polumbo was severely injured one day last week when a limb from a tree he was working on fell and struck him on the back of one leg. He was incapacitated for work for several days.

There were forty in attendance at the Whitford Sunday School Sunday. There were near that many at church that night. Chas. West and Bob Denney conducted the service.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Polumbo and sons and Mrs. Gerda Lilja took dinner and spent the evening with Mr. and Mrs. John Anderson of Portland.

Landscape Gardening Class

Free Landscaping Gardening classes will be held each week on Monday evenings at the Sylvan school, 7:30 to 9:30.

Registration is open to all. Roy J. Hall will be the instructor. An interesting feature of the course will be the trips taken to homes of the class members. Here Mr. Hall will give helpful advice to the home owners on ways to improve their garden.
