LIBRARY NOTES.....

Through the cooperation of Miss Harriet C. Long, State Librarian it has been possible to borrow approximately 200 volumes of fiction and non-fiction, suitable for grade and high school students. In order that these books may be available to a greater number of young people in this community, Miss Long is sponsoring a reading project, which is being carried out under the supervision of Mrs. Ruth K. Stratton of the Salem Public Library. Temporary white library cards, good until Sept. 1st, are being issued to those not having regular blue cards.

The poster contest in connection with reading project is for 1st to 8th grades inclusive, which are divided into three age groups. Contestants may still enter contest up to July 29th. Anyone with five or more books entered on card, may make a poster of the book he chooses; poster to depict title of book or some incident which appeals to contestant. Books must be entered on contest cards on Thursdays from 2 to 4 p. m. Suitable prizes will be awarded best posters in each group. A special prize is being offered for the greatest number of books entered on any one card; either an oral or very short written report being acceptable.

A number of requests for contest cards have been received from older students and while it has not been possible to include this age group at this time, it is to be hoped that in future contests of this kind, facilities will permit this group being included.

Two Facing Funds Count

Arrest of Claude H. Shores, 40, of Forest Grove, who with his wife Myrtle, faces grand jury charges of embezzlement has been announced by Sheriff J. W. Connell.

Formerly employed with J. B. Imlay & Sons of Reedville, as manager of the Quality Feed & Seed company at Forest Grove, Shores is alleged to have manipulated the firms finances, according to county authorities.

Shores was taken into custody at Eugene and brought here last Friday by Deputy Ireland. Mrs. Shores is expected to arrive soon from California and surrender herself to arrest.

Charges against the pair were filed last week in the form of a secret indictment returned at the July grand jury session. Shores was named in four true bills and his wife in one, with bail for each set at $1000.

Notices on 1940 Program Will Be Mailed Soon

Wheat farmers in Washington county who intend to cooperate under the 1940 Agricultural Conservation Program will soon receive notice of their 1940 wheat allotments, reports John W. Kanna, Chairman of the Washington County Agricultural Conservation Association.

A total wheat acreage allotment of 13,164 acres has been designated for Washington county under the 1940 program, of which three per cent, or 395 acres, can be utilized for establishing wheat allotments on those farms where no wheat has been grown in 1937, 1938, or 1939 but will be grown in 1940.

Farmers may appeal to the County Committee for adjustments of allotments within fifteen days after notices of allotments have been mailed from the county office. The same fifteen-day period exists and offers opportunity for farmers to request 1940 wheat allotments for "new" wheat farms—those which grew no wheat for harvest in 1937, 1938, or 1939. Requests for adjustment or establishment of 1940 wheat allotments must be made to the county committee in writing within the fifteen day period immediately following the mailing of the notices.

"Community Committeemen will assist the county committee in establishing 1940 wheat allotments. This arrangement will present the opportunity for a more equitable distribution of the 1940 wheat allotment for Washington county," reported Kanna.

4-H Poultry Team off To Poultry Congress

The Dixie Mountain 4-H poultry demonstrating team composed of Selmer Hendrickson and Lawrence Moran will leave by special train on July 24 for Cleveland, Ohio, where they will represent Oregon in the World's Poultry Congress July 28 to August 7.

Junior League Tournament Scheduled Aug. 5-6

Hillsboro, Ore., July 21—Preparing for a mass visitation of baseball fans from all parts of the state, improvements on the Hillsboro baseball diamond were under way this week as initial plans were laid for the Junior Legion state tournament to be held here on August 5 and 6.

Chief among the changes being made on the diamond is moving of the backfield fence to enlarge the field. With NYA supplying the labor, the "home run barrier" is being moved 40 feet beyond its original location and a system of stringers is being installed for a circle of canvas around the athletic field.

Tentative plans call for the setting up of bleacher seats to accommodate attendances of 1000 or more persons and arrangements are being made by the American Legion committee in charge for all the fanfare usually attendant upon a state tournament.

Four teams, winners in sectional playoffs, will compete in the double-header finale. Visiting players will be housed in the Shute park auditorium which is located just across the highway from the baseball diamond. Ample parking space for thousands of cars will await visiting fans.

Meeting with Hillsboro sports enthusiasts and Junior Legion ball officials last week, F. W. Robinson, chairman of the Legion's state baseball committee, pledged the state organization's whole-hearted support of the tournament. Also lending his efforts to make the two-day sports event a success is Biddy Bishop, president of the Old-Timer's Baseball association and well known Washington county resident.

Rebekahs Install New Officers

Beaverton Rebekah lodge No. 248 installed officers at the regular meeting in the I. O. O. F. hall Tuesday evening with visitors present from Portland, Tigard, Forest Grove and Banks. Mrs. Mildred Osfield, district deputy president, assisted by Mrs. Myrtle Hardman as marshal, installed the following officers: Frankie Butts, noble grand; Virginia Chamberlain, vice grand; Esther Proop, warden; Esther Jaeger, conductor; Marie Jacobson, RSN; Lulu Bauman LSN; Adeline Frank, RSVG; Margaret Yantti, LSVG; and Doris Ready, inside guardian; Valletta Taylor PNG; Sarah Walker, secy.; Hazel Miller, treasurer.

Valletta Taylor was presented with a PNG pin by the president of the club. Following the installation, refreshments of ice cream and cake were served.

Beaverton I. O. O. F. and Rebekah lodges will be hosts to the Washington county Three Link association in the I. O. O. F. hall in Beaverton Thursday evening, July 27. The meeting will be followed by a potluck dinner and mixed program.

Improvements Made At Miller's Market

A fine new automatic Kelvinator refrigeration system has been added to equipment at Miller's market, across from the Bank, in Beaverton. This controls the temperature in the entire enclosed meat case which is quite large, which assures the highest degree of freshness and perfection in handling and displaying the meats. Business at this market has been increased considerably since Mr. Miller took over a few months ago. They make their own hamburger right before you, using the finest prime steer beef.

Another thing, this market carries the finest bacon you could find anywhere, also fresh vegetables that equal any in any city vegetable market.

Ratcliffe-Lowe

Miss Jessie Lowe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ira Lowe and Clyde Ratcliffe, son of Mrs. Lulu Ratcliffe of Coal Creek, Wash., were married in the Baptist church in Kelso, Wash., Sunday, July 9, Rev. E. L. Monnes officiating.

Anderson-Marty

The marriage of Miss Irene H. Marty, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Marty, to Arthur F. Anderson, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. Anderson of Aloha, was solemnized at a garden wedding at the home of the bride's parents in Bethany by Rev. J. C. Schweitzer.

After a wedding trip to the Oregon beaches, Mr. and Mrs. Anderson will be at home at route 5, Portland.

Put Our Dollars To Work

Babson Says Small Investor Has Tough Problem

Gloucester, Mass., July 21—This is the queerest depression the United States and Canada have ever experienced. One of the ordinary symptoms of hard times is tight money. In our previous depressions, no one had any cash. Banks always had one eye peeled on the currency drawer. The sheriff's office was busy slapping attachments on shops and business offices. Interest rate were high. No one wanted to lend money. Everyone wanted to borrow.

But here we are well along in the second installment of the "Great Depression" with banks choked with cash, with more money in circulation than ever before, with interest rates at a new all-time low, with thrifty people unable to find suitable ways to invest their savings. Let's take the practical problem of a young family today. Brought up in the tradition of thrift, they are paying their bills and have a little something left over at the end of the month. What should they do with it? Put it in the bank? Buy or build a home. Bury it in the backyard? Purchase life insurance. Invest it in stocks.

Program First Step
Well, the first thing they should do is to lay out a program. The twin keynote of this program should be cash reserves and the cheapest form of good life insurance. Banks all over the nation are now slashing interest rates on saving accounts. Discouraging as this trend is, I think every young family must forget interest and use bank accounts just as young people always have. Banks are the simplest places in which to store your money. If we have inflation, you will get the same number of dollars out of the bank that you put into it. If we have deflation, the dollars you dig up in the backyard will buy no more than the phony ones that you drew out of the bank.

However, there is no need to put all your cash in a savings bank. There are four other possibilities where the interest rate is better and safety should be as good. First are the federal savings and loan association. They are paying 3 per cent in many instances. A second possibility is a Postal Savings account, which pays 2 per cent. Then there are the "Baby Bonds" issued by the U. S. Treasury. They can be purchased in any amount from $25 up, but no one can buy more than $10,000 par value in any one year. You pay $75 for a $100 bond, but collect it all at once at the end of ten years. It figures 23 per cent annually. These bonds can be "cash in" at any time on 60 days' notice.

Diversify Savings Accounts

New Bus Service Proves Popular

Bus Service over the Wolf Creek route to the sea, started by Oregon Motor Stages July 1, is proving popular, according to R. W. Lemen, president of the company.

Service over the old beach route via McMinnville and Hebo has been co-ordinated with the new service so that departures for Manzanita, Rockaway, Tillamook and intermediate points may be made.

County Road Oiling Started

Oiling on Washington county roads delayed for more than a month by summer rains, were started last week, according to County Judge Kerkman. Working through the county in a westerly direction, oiling of roads in the vicinity of Sherwood was the first start. Most heavily traveled roads will be improved first, the Judge says. Agent Palmer Torvend.

Field Meets Scheduled

Four irrigation field meetings, displaying both high and low pressure sprinklers, as well as flooding, have been scheduled for July 25 and 26 in Washington county, according to W. F. Cyrus.

Tuesday, July 25, a demonstration will be held at the John Nyberg farm, near Tualatin, and at W. T. Putnam & Sons, south of the Farmington Bridge. Wednesday program will be at farms in western part of county.

Health Nurse Hired

Miss Virginia Pearson of Portland, has been elected to assume the duties as health nurse in the Washington County Unit, made vacant by prior resignation of Miss Clara Engbreten. Miss Pearson comes well recommended, Judge Kerkman announced Wednesday, having had two years experience in health work, and will assume her duties Monday July 24. Her work will cover the eastern part of the County, the judge stated.
