

East Beaverton and West Slope News

Mrs. Arthur Jones whose home is on Sunset Road south of Canyon Highway has three fourths of an acre and not only has a very well kept flower and shrub garden but has a small greenhouse and features about all varieties of cactus. The work of raising them is interesting. She does the work here at home practically alone.

Mr. and Mrs. Elvin and her mother, lately dealt for the George La Torre place along Marshall street adjoining Sunset Lily Gardens on the east and have taken possession. They have done quite a lot of improvement work for the last several days. The house has been repainted and some remodeling done.

E. J. Walton of Portland has under construction a one and a half story house 28 by 60 with full basement. It is to have two fire places and there will be a nice large party room in the basement. It is located on Sunset Road between Bertha-Beaverton Highway and Canyon Road. Mr. Walton who is a tailor by trade, also has a mighty good knowledge of building construction as he is "his own contractor." M. Skagen is the boss carpenter and foreman. The job likely will be done in September and Mr. and Mrs. Walton will reside here. The job was started July 1st and much progress has been made since then. About nine men are on the job.

Mrs. L. P. Hendrickson of St. Anthony, Idaho, is spending the summer with Mr. and Mrs. L. Hendricks on Ruby avenue, north of Bertha-Beaverton highway.

Mrs. Catherine Stricker of Bertha-Beaverton highway is slowly recovering from an attack of arthritis after several years suffering. She has been under the care of physicians throughout the time of her affliction.

Miss Ursey Stricker has been spending a two weeks vacation at Rockaway and is expected home this week end. She is a daughter of Mrs. Catherine Stricker.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Gripps and three children recently moved to Portland. Their daughter Dorothy has been visiting at the home of her friends Mrs. Catherine Stricker and daughter Emma. Dorothy is to be a senior at Franklin High School next term. Emma is to spend this week end with friends in Portland.

Donald Gripp now of Southeast Portland and until recently a resident of the Beaverton vicinity who enlisted in the Navy last April, is expecting to be called in the near future. He is a former Beaverton High school student and is well known here.

At least ten new houses are under construction between Canyon Road and Bertha-Beaverton highway. There are a few small houses undergoing remodeling and enlarging a short distance west of this immediate area and a few new ones will be erected soon. Much of the building material come from Vincent Lumber Co. in Aloha, and McCready's in Beaverton.

Nine Remain on Jury Panel

Of the 31 jurors drawn for the July term of court and reporting Monday, eight were excused permanently, six were excused until September, one never reported while seven were named to a new grand jury.

Those selected as grand jurors were Lewis T. Crawford, foreman, Leonard VanLom, Phillip W. Watkins, Mary French, Joseph Jackson, Walter Ferguson and Olivia Wilkins.

Nations, like individuals, must stand for honor, fair play and law.

School Field Formally Opened

Completion of improvements to a Beaverton high school athletic field, regarded as outstanding among towns of its size was celebrated Thursday evening.

A program of softball games under lights and a brief opening ceremony was the diversion.

Addition of floodlights has followed such improvements as turfing and construction of a particularly well-equipped grandstand, complete with press box and public address system.

A preliminary game was between two leading women's teams from Portland and the second game was the Centler Manufacturing company squad from Portland who met Beaverton Auto company, softball league member. Mayor W. E. McCloskey tossed the first ball.

Field improvements over a period of years have resulted from co-operative efforts by business men and the school student body.

It is about ripe for some national newspaper to begin printing the facts instead of the mouthy interviews of the so-called authorities.

The trouble with the United States is that there are too many people who want to be dictator in fact, if not in name.
