STOP! At the Marked Crosswalk

ACCIDENTS CAN BE AVOIDED!
SAFE DRIVING SAVES LIVES!

Two orange colored lines crossing the street mark the school children's right-of-way. RESPECT IT.

Motorists are urged to respect the members of the school patrols wearing the white Sam Browne belt who are working for the safety of school children en route to and from school.

The city ordinance regarding these cross walks requires motorists, street cars, etc. to slow down to 15 miles per hour when no one is crossing the street. . . . and if someone is crossing in the marked walk to STOP. Orange lettering warns you in ample time of the approach of a cross walk. . . . PLAY SAFE! Remember a minute lost in stopping may save you months—or even years—of regret.

This appeal is made possible by the individuals and institutions whose names and advertisements appear on this page. They are interested in the safety of your children.
