Miss Mary Baggenstos Wed at Nuptial Mass

Candalabra and green palms decorated St. Anthony's Catholic church at Tigard for the nuptial mass at 10 a. m. January 21st, when Miss Mary Jo Baggenstos, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph H. Baggenstos, Sr., of Sherwood, became the bride of Mr.
Allan Amstad, of Portland, son of Mrs. Caspar Amstad and the late Mr.
Amstad of Beaverton. Rev. Rogers read the service.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a gown of traditional white satin, made with a scalloped neckline trimmed with seed pearls, tight fitted bodice, long sleeves shirred at the shoulder line, and a long court train. Her long tulle veil was held in place with a striking coronet of tulle and satin matching her bridal gown. She carried a sheaf of white Calla lilies.

Miss Elizabeth Baggenstos of Portland, who was her sister's maid of honor, wore a gown of sky blue tafetta, made with a shirred square neckline, trimmed with pale pink velvet, fitted bodice, full skirt and bustle back. She wore a halo of pale pink velvet, and carried an arm bouquet of white carnations.

The bridesmaids were the Misses Anna Lasich of Seattle, Wash., and Bertha and Margaret Baggenstos, sisters to the bride. Their gowns were of chiffon velvet in shades of forest brown, spruce green and grape wine made with high necklines fitted bodice and full skirts. They wore wore twisted halos of matching velvet and carried arm bouquets of pale pink carnations similar to maid of honor.

Best man for Mr. Amstad was Mr.
John Baggenstos, brother to the bride, and the ushers were the Messrs. Herman Baggenstos, of Vancouver, Wash., cousin to Miss Bag-genstos, August Strecker of Parkrose, Oregon, and Ben Baggenstos, brother to the bride.

A large reception followed at St.
Anthony's hall. Assisting were Mesdames Gus Kaufman, Carl Young, Steven Mesich, Stanley Parker, and the Misses Bertha Amstad, Ruth Zednick and Margaret Peake.

Mrs. Baggenstos, the brides mother wore a becoming rose silk dress and a corsage of gardenias and bouvardia.
The groom's mother Mrs. Amstad, wore black crepe and a corsage of freesias and bouvardia.

Before the ceremony the church choir sang accompanied by Miss Geraldine Kellner.

After January 28th Mr. and Mrs.
Amstad will be at home in Portland.
Out of town guests included Dr.
Clifford Hadley, Miss Margaret Peake and Allan Pomeroy of Seattle, Wash., Mr. and Mrs. Walter Baggenstos, and Mrs. Josephine Gabriel of Sauvie's Island Dr. and Mrs. Stanley Parker, Miss Rose Walton, Mr. and Mrs.
Steven Mesich, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Baggenstos, and Robert Jelmman of

THE CALF PATH

One Day,
Through the primeval wood
A Calf walked home, As good calves should;
But made a trail
All bent askew,
A crooked trail
As all calves do.

Since then,
Two hundred years have fled,
And, I infer,
The calf is dead.
But still, he left behind,
His trail,
And thereby hangs
My moral tale.

The trail
Was taken up next day
By a lone dog
That passed that way;
And then
A wise bell-weather sheep Pursued the trail
O'er vale and steep,
And drew the flock Behind him too,
As good bell-weather Always do.

And from that day,
O'er hill and glade,
Through those old woods
A path was made;
And many men Wound in and out And dodged, and turned And bent about
And uttered words
Of uttered wrath Because
'Twas such a crooked path.

But still they followed——Do not laugh—
The first migrations
Of that calf,
And through this Winding wood-way stalked
Because HE wobbled
When he walked.
The forest path
Became a lane,
That bent, and turned,
And turned again;
This crooked lane
Became a road, Where many a poor horse
With his load
Toiled on beneath
The burning sun,
And traveled
Some three miles in one.
And thus,
A century and a half
They trod the footsteps
Of that calf.

The years passed on In swift fleet;
The road became A village street;
And this,
Before men were aware,
A city's crowded Thoroughfare;
And soon the central Street was this,
Of a renowned Metropolis;
And men,
Two centuries and a half Trod in the footsteps
Of that calf.

Each day
A hundred thousand rout Followed the zigzag calf About;
And o'er his crooked Journey went
The traffic of a continent.
A hundred thousand men Were led By One Calf
Near three centuries dead, They followed still His crooked way,
And lost One Hundred Years a day;
For thus Such reverence is lent
To well established Precedent.

A moral lesson
This might teach,
Were I ordained
And called to preach
For men are prone
To go it blind
Along the Calf Path
Of the Mind,
And work away
From Sun to Sun
To do what other Men have done.

They follow
In the beaten track, And out and in,
And forth and back,
And still their Devious course pursue,
To keep the path
That others do.

But how the wise Old Wood-gods laugh, Who saw the first Primeval Calf!
Ah! Many things
This tale might teach
But I am not Ordained to preach.

New Equipment Added to Auto Painting Shop

Multnomah Auto Painting shop has been doing a very good business in body and fender work as well as car painting and the management looks for a very good season ahead.
They have added to their equipment this winter and are prepared to turn out more work and with utmost accuracy and promptness. It was less than a year ago that this new enterprise was opened in Multnomah.

DURHAM NEWS

Mrs. H. Borland of the Durham Station Store says business is now better than ever and she looks for a pretty good spring and summer not only for her store, but for men of the neighborhood who hold down jobs.
More of them who have been out of work are to be put back to work and more new jobs created. Fewer than for three years are out of employment. The Durham district has held its own fairly well the last few years. More new homes are under construction in this area than has been the case in the last five years and it is expected there will be at least six more houses built within the next three months.
