THE BOYS

Has there any old fellow
Got mixed with the boys?
If there has, take him out
Without making a noise,
Hang the almanac's cheat
And the catalog's spite,
Old time is a liar!
We're Twenty, Tonight!

We're Twenty! We're Twenty!
Who says we are more?
He's tipsy, young jackanapes!
Show him the door!
"Grey temples at twenty?"
—Yes! White, if you please!
Where the snowflakes fall
Thickest
There's nothing can freeze!

Was it snowing I spoke of?
Excuse the mistake!
Look close, you will not
See a sign of a flake!
We want some new garlands
For those we have shed,
And these are White roses
In place of the Red.

We've a trick, we young fellows,
You may have been told,
Of talking (in public)
As if we were old:
That boy we call "Doctor",
And this, we call "Judge";
It's a neat little fiction,
Of course it's all fudge.

That fellow's the "Speaker",
The one on the right;
"Mr. Mayor," my young one,
How are you tonight?
That's our "Member of Congress,"
We say when we chaff;
That's the "Reverend"—
What's his Name,
Don't make me laugh.

That boy with the
Grave mathematical look
Made believe he had written
A wonderful book,
And THE ROYAL SOCIETY
Thought it was true!
So they chose him right in;
A good joke it was, too!

There's a boy, we pretend
With a three-decker brain,
That could harness a team
With a logical chain;
When he spoke for our manhood
In syllabled fire,
We called him "The Justice,"
But now he's "The Squire."

And there's a nice youngster
Of excellent pith,
Fate tried to conceal him
By naming him Smith;
But he shouted a Song
For the brave and the free,
Just read on, on his medal,
"My Country,"—"Of Thee!"

You hear that boy laughing?
—You think he's all fun;
But the angels laugh, too,
At the Good he has done,
The children laugh loud
As they troop to his call;
And the poor man
Laughs loudest of all.

Yes, we're boys, always playing
With tongue or with pen,
And I sometimes have asked,
—Shall we ever be men?
Shall we always be youthful
And laughing and gay,
Till the last dear companion
Drops smiling away?

Then here's to our boyhood,
It's gold and it's grey!
The stars of it's winter,
The dew of it's May!
And when we have done
With our life-lasting toys,
Dear Father,—take care
Of thy Children,—The Boys!
Oliver Wendell Holmes
(1809-1894)

killing the geese which lay the golden eggs.
4. The anti-trust laws should be amended so that business men will have specific standards where-by to judge what is deemed monopolistic and in restraint of trade. The Federal Trade Commission should be given the exclusive power to initiate the prosecution of dishonest competition.
5. The National Labor Relations Act calls for amendment. This Act should be made to furnish safeguards to both the individual worker and the employer against group tyranny; and to encourage cooperation of employers and workmen who want to develop honest labor relations.

Halt Pyramiding Debt

The real cause for alarm is not alone the sheer size of our public debt but rather the tendency of the debt to keep on mounting to the skies. I see no reason why we cannot cope with a 45-billion-dollar debt, provided we stop there and do not continue to pile fresh burdens on the camel's back. For seven years now, we have been pyramiding the debt at an average rate of three billion dollars a year. In recent years, (1936 and 1937 for instance) corporations had a net income of about eight billions, but four and a half billions of this were consumed by taxes. Under such circumstances, how can business men be encouraged to expand? What are their incentives to provide new jobs?

Ten years ago, business needed a spanking; but this is no longer true. Today we can risk unshackling business initiative. We have tried every experiment imaginable since 1929 except budget-balancing. I believe that our next president—regardless of who he is—will try this method of solving unemployment—and will succeed. With such a trial should come a period of great prosperity for the United States. Moreover, it will be a good prosperity period because it will, for awhile at least, be free of many of the evils that have ruined previous booms. Such a development would be the best way to celebrate the birthday of Washington, who always stood for honesty above everything else.
