

YOU AND YOUR FRIENDS

IF YOU DON'T SEE YOUR NAME HERE IT IS BECAUSE YOU DID NOT TELL US ABOUT IT. TELL US, WRITE US, PHONE US

KINTON NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Van Kleeck and Miss Helen Van Kleeck left last Wednesday for Chitwood where Mrs. Van Kleeck and Miss Van Kleeck will visit Mrs. Edith Landis, while Mr. Van Kleeck attends a dairyman convention at Corvallis. They returned home the first of this week.

The Kinton Grange will hold their regular meeting Saturday starting at 11 a. m.

Pat Brooks is spending a few days with his sister, Mrs. Everett Wright. He has been at Waldport making shakes and expects to go back this week to finish the job.

Alfred Boyles sang at a program sponsored by the Womens club at Scholls Friday night.

Roy Bell is quite ill with the flu. Measle cases in this community are, Edward Neill, Lawrence and Willis Elliot, David and Nora Ann Newkirk and Joe Aten.

Miss Rosemary Aten spent Wednesday night and Thursday at her grandparents Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Morback at Sherwood. Thursday afternoon Miss Aten gave a reading at the Sherwood high school and Thursday night she took part in the program at the Washington birthday banquet sponsored by the American Legion and Auxiliary.

Mr. and Mrs. Emory Van Kleeck, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Van Horn and Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Aten attended the Washingtons birthday banquet at Sherwood Thursday night sponsored by the American Legion and Auxiliary. The tables were artistically decorated in red, white and blue color scheme with miniature cherry trees, logs and hatchets. At each place was a candy stump with a little hatchet stuck in it, also individual cherry tarts. The guest speaker of the evening was the State Chaplain of the American Legion, Father Clancy, who gave an interesting talk on his big game hunting in the Northwest territory.

Mrs. Jess Huntman was guest of honor at a birthday dinner at the home of her son, Archie Otis in Portland on Sunday.

The Junior group of the Jolly Stitches were treated to punch and cookies by their leaders at their meeting last Wednesday.

The pupils of Kinton school neither tardy or absent the past month are, Fred Van Horn, Annabelle Van Kleeck, Irene Van Kleeck, Ruth Van Kleeck, John Heard, Wesley Heard, Alfred Boyles, Kenneth Brown, Alton Grabhorn, Burton Grabhorn, Samba Kaga, Shagi Kaga, Albert Koenig, Goldwyn Kulbel, Mildred Mullengurg, Vincia Novelli, LeRoy Sprecher, Roberta Thompson, Sumiko Kaga, Kenneth Skeels, Marjorie Van Kleeck, Paul Bell, Merle Ogile, Dixie Lee Skeels, Edith Marion Van Kleeck, Kenneth Dickson, Lorna Sprecher and Charlotte Thompson.

BEAVERTON

Walter Jesse and Eva Beeler of Beaverton, suffered injuries in an automobile accident recently, they were treated at a Portland hospital for serious injuries, according to reports.

Be sure to attend the Girl Reserves carnival at Beaverton high gym Friday, March 1. Coronation, dancing, concessions, eats.

Frederick Piggett, late of route 1 Beaverton passed away February 22. He was husband of Anna, father of Mrs. Orville Neese, Mrs. E. M. Westhefer, Mrs. George W. Lovegren, Portland; also survived by seven grandchildren.

A. V. Butts, Beaverton, escaped injury when his automobile crashed through a plate glass window of the St. Johns garage, 8739 North Jersey street, Portland, police reports disclosed.

Mrs. J. W. Sprague of Seattle attended the Beaver Social club card party Wednesday.

A group of Beaverton women attended a luncheon Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Ole Kaupila (Jean Klein) in Portland. Those invited included were Mesdames Geo. Blasser, C. E. Mason, W. H. Engleke, Belle Walker and Geo. Thng.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Johnson of Coburg, Mrs. Alice Geinger, and Mrs. Thayne Smith of Tillamook, Mrs. Myrtle Henderson of Tualatin and Mrs. Bessie Kerr of Portland, visited their father in a group Sunday at the hospital where he is seriously ill. Later gathering at the home of Mr. and Mrs.

Henderson for a family dinner together.

E. A. Convis of Longview, Wash., accompanied by James Hirsch of Pontiac, Mich., visited at the home of Mrs. E. E. Fisher Sunday, returning to Longview in the evening they were accompanied by Mrs. Lulu Coyner at the Fisher home.

Mrs. Rhoda Thynge has accepted a position with the law firm of Reynolds, Flagel & Smith in Portland.

Members of the Beaverton Garden club and friends enjoyed a pot luck dinner together in Kiwanis hall Thursday evening. Mr. Bacher of Swiss Floral Company showed pictures and gave an instructive talk on gardening.

Mrs. Jay Gibson, Mrs. Nelson Walker, Mrs. W. H. Engleke and Mrs. George Thynge attended the luncheon and business meeting of the Washington County League of Women voters at Forest Hills club rooms. Miss J. Vergeer, resident nurse at the F.S.A. migratory farm labor camp near Dayton explained the functioning of that project.

Jay Gibson Jr., paid a short visit to his parents here Wednesday. He was one of six debaters from Washington State College of Pullman, to debate at the Pi Kappa Delta's three day intercollegiate invitational forensic tournament in which there were 125 teams, representing 35 colleges, and six western states competing. Seven former students of Beaverton high school were in debate, oratory and extemporaneous speaking. College of Pacific of Stockton, Cal., walked off with major honors.

David Phelps, 8th grade teacher, was called to Corvallis the latter part of last week, owing to the sudden death of his brother Ernest C. Phelps Friday. Heart trouble was blamed for his death.

Charles H. Jacks of Portland, city passenger agent for the Union Pacific passenger traffic division, has received promotion to general agent at Aberdeen, Wash., and takes charge March 1. Mr. and Mrs. Jacks formerly resided in Beaverton and have many friends here.

Mrs. J. H. Dobbins, Mrs. M. C. McKercher, Mrs. Freda Austin and Mrs. Nelson Walker, members of the Beaverton Grange, attended the Multnomah County Pomona Grange Wednesday of last week held at Pleasant Valley Grange hall for an all day and evening meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Alexander were dinner guests of Dr. and Mrs. Theodore Hetu Thursday evening. Founders Day was celebrated by the Beaverton Parent Teachers association at the meeting Tuesday evening. A candle lighting ceremony was put on by the past presidents, in celebration of the 43 years of its duration. Mrs. Melvin Beeler had charge of the program of speeches, songs, and readings.

A birthday cake was cut and refreshments served.

Mrs. Agnes Conace, who has been confined to her home with flu, was missed from her popcorn stand at the theatre. She is able to be back at her work.

The list of old time subscribers to the Oregonian was read with much interest. An outstanding name from Beaverton was Mrs. Zion Fanno Wilmot, who was born in Washington county June 5, 1853. Her parents taking the paper at that time and she has kept up the subscription. She has read the paper for 82 years, at that time it was brought out from Portland on horseback with other mail and usually distributed at the church, as there was no postoffice here at that time. Mrs. Wilmot and her daughter Mrs. W. N. Boyd live in Beaverton.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Hermitt R. Gram, February 22, son John L. Mrs. B. E. Miller entertained 16 members of the Friendly Circle Friday.

Mrs. Oscar Effenberger and two small sons of Tillamook, spent the week end with her parents Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Shellenberger.

The Beaverton Book club held a very interesting meeting in Kiwanis hall Thursday. Mrs. C. E. Mason reviewed "Prairie Grove" by Prattie. The second birthday anniversary of the club was celebrated. Mrs. W. P. Stratton the first president of the club, cut and served cake. The next regular meeting will be held March 14. Mrs. J. Gould has returned to Medford after a visit with her son in law and daughter Dr. and Mrs. J. R. Talbert.

B. E. Miller of the Safeway Store meat market has been transferred to Forest Grove.

Mr. and Mrs. V. A. Wood, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Van Kleeck and Mrs. W. H. Engleke, guardians, were hostesses for the Jobs Daughters dance held in the Masonic Temple recently.

Friday evening the Cub Boy Scouts and their fathers gathered at Kiwanis hall to enjoy a banquet together prepared by the members of the Methodist Ladies Aid. There were about 65 present. The Den Mothers consisting of Mrs. Paxton, Mrs. Steel, Mrs. Stradler, and Mrs. Eastner had charge of the serving. Byron Walker, district committee of Scout work, gave an instructive talk.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Schurman of Scholls celebrated their 56th wedding anniversary Sunday. Relatives and friends called during the day. They are the parents of Mrs. W. C. Wright, Mrs. Galloway and Charles Schurman of Beaverton.

Mrs. J. H. Dobbins entertained members of the Home Economic committee of Beaverton grange at luncheon Tuesday. Plans were made for the year. Those present were Mrs. Walter Van Kleeck, Mrs. M. C. McKercher, Mrs. Freda Austin, Mrs. Nelson Walker and the hostess.

Miss Eunice Allen of the Manley Community Center, Portland, will be

Queen Virginia's Court

Pictured from left to right, standing: Lewis Emmons, Jack See, Howard Johnston, Virginia Bishop, Bill Moshofsky, Dick Willis, and Calvin Lehman. Seated: Ruth Fitzpatrick, Gertrude Sipe, Dorothy O'Connor, Betty Moore and Doris Eggamin.

Queen Virginia, First, to Reign Over G. R. Carnival March 1

Excitement and Fun for All at the High School Gym, Topped by Coronation

Hear Ye! Hear Ye! Fun and festivity will prevail throughout the domain of Her Royal Highness Queen Virginia I during the evening of Friday, March 1, here at the high school.

Her Majesty Queen Virginia will be crowned by Prime Minister Dod Berg. Jack See will be queen's consort. Calvin Lehman has been named Herald. Dorothy O'Connor as Crown Princess will be escorted by Howard Johnston, Crown Prince. Betty Moore, Ruth Fitzpatrick, Doris Eggamin, Gertrude Sipe, Dick Willis, Lewis Emmons, George Gordon and Bill Moshofsky will complete the Royal Court.

Flower girls will be the little Misses Donna Mills, niece of L. R. Mills, and Marlene Cook, daughter of Coach L. M. Cook. Train-bearer will be Lee Zumwalt, son of Coach Ed Zumwalt. After the coronation of Her Highness, Calvin Lehman, Herald, will read the Royal proclamation. Queen Virginia will begin her majestic reign with a Grand March and Queen's Ball.

The carnival festivity will begin at 7:30 p. m. for grade and high school students. Doors will be closed from 5 to 7 p. m. when they will reopen to the public.

Ye olde hot dog stande will be a favorite booth as well as such concessions as the novelty booth, tea room, baseball throw, picture show, fortune telling, score cards, telegraph hand-work, and many others.

A door prize will be given. Admission will be five cents for grade school students, ten cents for high school students and fifteen cents for adults.

The carnival under the leadership of Miss Florence Woughter and Miss Bernice Conoly, advisors, promises to

WHITFORD

Fielding Denney who has been confined in the Good Samaritan hospital recovering from an appendix operation, returned to the home of his parents Sunday. He is recovering nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. Bud Doyle entertained at dinner Monday evening honoring Mrs. Dick Hempke on her birthday. Those present besides the host and hostess were Mr. and Mrs. Hempke and little son and daughter and C. B. Gardener, Mrs. Doyle's father.

Miss Dorothy Vershem who is secretary to the president of Newberg College, spent the week end with home folks.

A family by the name of Wilson have moved recently into what is known as the Turk place. A son and daughter are attending the Whitford school.

Mrs. Lewis Gilson has so far recovered from her recent serious illness as to be able to drive her car about the community.

Miss Lavonne Winget of Beaverton spent Sunday at the home of her grand parents.

Services at the Whitford church were conducted by Douglas Taylor and Mr. Garnett of Portland was the minister. Special music was rendered by a young lady from Portland. There were forty one present at the Sunday School.

Miss Huen of Beaverton was a week end guest of Miss Alice Denney. Mrs. Gerda Lilja who has spent the winter with her brother in law and sister Mrs. and Mrs. John Anderson of Portland, returned to the home of her daughter Mrs. Dan Polumbo.

A group of Rebekahs and Odd Fellows was entertained at dinner Sunday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Wick. Members from this community attended.

Local Leaders to Attend Meeting Tuesday

Washington county local leaders' association will hold its regular monthly meeting Tuesday, March 5, at the Hillsboro chamber of commerce rooms, announced Palmer Torvend, assistant county agent. A review of the Washington county local leaders' conference will be given and the Beaverton 4-H clubs are to present a play with the rest of the program. Demonstrations will be discussed further.

COME TO CHURCH

THE METHODIST CHURCH
Earl B. Horsell, Minister
Morning worship 11 a. m. Sermon "The Way of Life."
Sunday School 9:45 a. m. Chas. H. Roseman, Supt.
Evening worship service 7:30 p. m.
Midweek service Thursday at 8:30 p. m.

BETHEL CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH
9:45 a. m. The Bible School, Prof. E. G. Webb, Supt.
11 a. m. Morning worship, Sermon "The Rejected Overtures of God."
Choir music directed by Willis Cady.
Speaker Rev. T. Arthur Dungan.

A Delicious Meal at
BABE & BETTY'S PLACE
On Canyon Highway, Beaverton
LUNCHES — CONFECTIONS

be the best ever held, according to Virginia Bishop, committee chairman. Committee heads are Mrs. Annabelle Barnes, Annabelle Moshofsky, Mabel Kent, Floydine Ringo, Jean Berger, Florence Ewer, Margaret Ann Holboke, Gertrude Sipe and Shirley Trotter.

The Girl Reserves sponsor a carnival every two years.

SCHOLLS

An interesting history of the Scholls district and pioneer days has been compiled by W. W. Jaquith, who is 84 years old.

Mr. and Mrs. William Hanson are enjoying a two weeks vacation in California visiting in Los Angeles and San Pedro.

A large banquet under sponsorship of Scholls Grange will be given March 8 in the grange hall. Governor Sprague will be the guest speaker. Musical numbers have also been planned on the program. Committee in charge of the affair consists of Chairman Len W. Guild, H. T. Hesse and J. E. Bartlett.

Exceptional entertainment was enjoyed at the Scholls grange hall last Friday evening, when the Scholls Woman's club put on an Amateur Scholls-ville night.

Mrs. Lyle Goodell of Portland, is a house guest of her parents Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Hesse, during the absence of her husband, who is on a business trip to New York.

The Methodist church is presenting a passion play "Jesus Bids Farewell to Bethany" on the evening of March 24.

Ruby Rebekah lodge will be host for district 14 Rebekah convention, March 9. Mrs. Alma Henderson of Chemawa Rebekah Assembly will be present. Mrs. Audrey Heaton is chairman of the affair.

NEW LOW TRAIN FARES to CALIFORNIA in chair cars and coaches on Southern Pacific

See local S.P. agent or write J. A. ORMANDY, Gen. Pass. Agent, 622 Pacific Building, Portland, Oregon

--building material

You'll need that new house or remodeling job materials soon

ROOFING, per roll	$.95
ROOF COATING, 5 gals.	1.49
PLASTER BOARD, per M.	$27.50
HOUSE PAINT, per gal.	$1.89
2x6 DOOR	$1.66

SEE US ABOUT A REPAIR LOAN OR A NEW HOUSE LOAN

Wall Board Veneer
Windows and Tile,
Nails, Doors

Our Red Trucks Deliver

W. J. McCready Lumber Co.

Phone 4606 F. D. PECK, Mgr. Phone 12505

A STEP AHEAD OF SPRING

But we're telling you right now that Pendleton is ready with one of the finest showings of fabrics and tailoring in the city. Give your wardrobe a change of pace this spring by adding a new virgin wool Pendleton suit. Choose from spring showing of better fabrics—then to Pendleton and pick your suit.

- Township Twists
- Western Homespuns
- Westcoat Flannels
- Washougal Cassimere
- Westcoat Shellands
- and Cheviots

Pendleton SUITS

Quality is the watchword of Pendleton . . . and in every Pendleton suit you get careful needlework and correct styling, as well as an almost unlimited selection of newest styles and fabrics . . . all, of course, of Pendleton's own famous virgin wool quality. Complete range of sizes, priced from $23.50.

SPRING TOPCOATS—Complete your wardrobe with a Pendleton topcoat of covert tweed or cassimere—just the right weight for Oregon's Spring showers—Raglans, Balmacean—single breasted.

PENDLETONS FOR SPRING FROM $23.50

* Free Parking Lot Second & Columbia

Pendleton WOOLEN MILLS
SECOND AND JEFFERSON ST.

PORTLAND

You will have money in your pocket when you buy regularly at

CITY MARKET
On Broadway
In Beaverton

Phone 0855

ELMER BENSON, Prop.