WHITFORD

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Hempke and family of Sylvan spent Saturday evening with Mrs. Hempke's father C. B. Gardner and Mr. and Mrs. Bud Doyle.

Mrs. Helen Rickey and her sister Mrs. Hattie Crittendon have been visiting friends in Portland for a few days.

Mrs. E. G. Perkins entertained the Whitford Womens club on Wednesday last. A roll call was responded to by all present. The usual sewing quilt blocks was then indulged in after which the game was conducted by Mrs. Frank Gibson. The hostess served a dainty lunch of ice cream, cake, and tea.

The community was shocked to learn of the sudden passing of August Dessinger. Gus, as he was familiarly called, lived on what is known as the Wm. Matzke farm for a number of years. He had numerous friends here to mourn their loss in his passing.

Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Perkins spent Sunday at the beach.

The annual McKay School alumni picnic will be held next Sunday, June 16, in the grove back of the Whitford School house. All who are interested are cordially invited to be present.

Beaverton Grange held a most enjoyable meeting in their hall Saturday. A number of members from this community were present.

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Brown visited with the S. B. Lawrence family Friday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence drove to Seattle recently accompanying Mrs. Lawrence's sister Mrs. Louise Carter to her home. Mrs. Carter has been visiting relatives here for the past three months.

Miss Betty Prinkle spent the past week with her friend Pauline Vershem.

Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Garnett of Salem spent the week end with their parents.

The Dryden sisters gave a program of vocal and instrumental religious music at the Whitford Church Sunday evening. Miss Dryden gave an interesting talk on the Lord's temple. Kenneth Taylor gave a talk on the present day method of religious teaching. Douglas made a trip to Wheaton, Illinois. He expects to return in two weeks.

Bible Questions & Answers

- 1 What is the Scripture injunction in regard to prayer?
A I will therefore that men pray everywhere, lifting up holy hands without wrath and doubting. 1 Tim 2:8.
- 2 What is the promise to those who ask and seek for the things they need?
A Everyone that asketh receiveth: And he that seeketh findeth; and to him that knocketh it shall be opened Matt. 7:8.
- 3 How does the Savior illustrate the willingness of heaven to grant favors to those who ask?
A If ye then, being evil, know how to give good gifts unto your children, how much more shall your Father which is in heaven give good things to them that ask him. verse 11.
- 4 Why is it necessary to ask God for all these things?
A Every good gifts and every perfect gift is from above, and cometh down from the father of lights, with whom is no variableness, neither shadow of turning. James 1:17.
- 5 How should we pray to God?
A I will pray with the Spirit and I will pray with the understanding also 1 Cor. 14:15.
- 6 With what should the prayers of supplicant be mingled?
A Be careful for nothing; but no everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known unto God. Phil. 4:6
- 7 Should certain forms be repeated in public for the purpose of being heard by men?
A But when ye pray, use not vain repetitions. As the heathen do: for they think that they shall be heard for their much speaking. Matt. 6:7.
- 8 What must necessarily prompt our petitions in order to please God?
A But without faith it is impossible to please him for he that cometh to God must believe that he is, a rewarder of them that diligently seek him. Heb. 11:6.
