

Beaverton News.

The first Beaverton young man to enlist in the regular army under the new government rearmament program, is Richard W. Sanders, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry C. Sanders, route 1, Beaverton, who enlisted for the 29th engineers, a topographical battalion stationed at Portland, according to an announcement made this week by Lieutenant Colonel H. D. Bagnall, Portland recruiting officer.

Miss Helen Murphy became the bride of John Glott, son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Glott of Forest Grove, at a simple ceremony June 2 at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. T. Murphy of Beaverton. The service was read by Rev. J. A. Jeffery of Tigard.

Preceding the ceremony Alfred Boyles sang, accompanied by Mrs. Anne Neill at the organ and Ray Olson nephew of the bride, on the violin.

The bride was attended by Miss Dorothy Damm of Molalla and Robert Murphy, brother of the bride, acted as best man.

At the reception following the ceremony Misses Gladys Greenleaf and Helen Peterson of Hillsboro and Mrs. R. H. Bowling of San Bernardino, California, served.

After a short honeymoon in Washington, the couple will make their home in Gresham.

The engagement of Miss Vivian Webb of Portland, has been announced to Karl Reed Swenson, of Portland, son of Dr. and Mrs. Karl J. Swenson, of Portland, formerly of this place. The wedding is planned for July 19th in Portland, where Miss Webb has been making her home for the past year.

Miss Webb, whose parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walton Stanley Webb, reside in Petersburg, Va., is a graduate of Columbia University school of law in Washington, D. C. Mr. Swenson attended the University of Oregon, and later graduated from the school of foreign service of Georgetown University in Washington, D. C.

The Beaverton air port has been the scene of intense activity while a young man built an airplane from a motorcycle engine and other things Sunday he flew to Salem and Silverton as fine as a fiddle, but on the return trip the engine went dead over Tigard and he landed in Ab Secklas' clover field, the clover just high enough to catch in the wheels and tip the plane end for end, throwing the aviator clear of the ship. He had a broken propeller.

The city ordinance now in effect in regards to firecrackers provides: That it shall be unlawful to sell, use, discharge, ignite or fire any firecrackers, torpedoes, rockets, bombs, paper balloons, or fireworks of any description within the city limits of Beaverton before the first day of July and after the seventh day of July, unless permitted by the city for general entertainment of the public in connection with a celebration. Anyone found guilty of violating the ordinance and endangering the person or property of another is subject to a fine of not less than $5.00 or more than $100.
