On To Victory!

Once again the Republican Party has risen to the preeminent need and demands of the country in a great national crisis.

It has given to the people nominees for President and Vice President of the United States who measure up to the best traditions of the party of Abraham Lincoln and Theodore Roosevelt—nominees who will lead the Nation to an overwhelming victory for Americanism and Republicanism in November.

The choice of Wendell L. Willkie of Indiana as the nominee for President and of Senator Charles L. McNary of Oregon as the nominee for Vice President, represents the will of the rank and file voters of the Republican Party and was accomplished through the responsiveness of the convention delegates to this will.

The delegates met, debated and made their choice in a spirit of high patriotism, relegating to the background considerations of narrow partisanship, doing that which, in their sober judgment was for the best interests of the whole people.

In their dedication to this single purpose, also, the other candidates for the Presidential and Vice Presidential nominations promptly acquiesced in the decision of the majority in the true American way. In each instance they pledged their whole-hearted support to the ticket.

There is thus presented a united Republican front that alone would prove invincible. Added to this solid phalanx will be tens of thousands of real Democrats who will join forces with the Republican Party to free this Nation forever from the threat of dictatorship, ruinous bureaucracy, waste and extravagance, incapacity and maladministration from top to bottom which has characterized the New Deal.

The people of the Nation are eager to emerge from the quagmire of inefficiency and insincerity, foreign ideologies and continuous stifling of free enterprise in which they have for seven years been immersed.

In the persons of Wendell L. Willkie and his running mate Senator McNary they feel they have found leaders at a critical time who are brave, honest and alert to the dangers besetting our republic. They are two men who will arouse the imagination and affection of the people as have no leaders of recent years.

So, On to Victory!

REDS IN THE NEW DEAL

The New Deal has been accused of harboring many Communists, some of whom have been placed in important positions in Government. Spokesmen for the New Deal have denied this, but from time to time evidence has been uncovered to prove it is true.

With the air and the press filled with Trojan horse tactics in Europe, the average American citizen has been set to wondering if we have a "fifth column" here in this country. It seems fairly certain that the Government will be asked to move the extreme "left wingers" from their posts. That seems assured as a result of the disaster which befell European countries where "fifth columns" gained control of strategic points.

—Marshfield (Wis.) News-Herald

The Defense Commission, which includes a minority of businessmen, is approaching the question of limitations on hours and wages. What its decisions will be remains to be seen. But as it approached the problem, a new action by Russia attracted attention.

Russia since 1929 has been working its industries for five days and then shutting down for a day. Now, however, they have gone back to a seven day schedule.

Also, those employees who have been working 6 hours a day will now work 7 and those who have been working 7 will work 8 hours.

France and England went through the same procedure, France yielding too late, on some of its "social gains." It remains to be seen whether England and Russia have waited too long, and whether the United States will piddle along with arbitrary restrictions which hamper its national defense.

Buffalo Evening News (Ind.)

The nomination of Senator Charles L. McNary of Oregon as the Republican candidate for Vice President completes the strongest ticket which the Republican Party has offered to the American people in many years. As minority leader in the Senate he has been the ablest marshal of the anti-New Deal forces in Congress. * * * More than any other Senator on either side of the aisle, he has taken up the cause of the American farmer and has become known as the pioneer in liberal farm legislation. * * * Senator McNary is undoubtedly the Republican leader best fitted by experience and background to preside over the Senate for the next four years.

Tells on Joe Kill'em And Pistol Pete

Hello Folks: Joe Kill'em an Pistol Pete a writin' in the Oologah Oozings, Oologah, Okla., are continually a tellin' things on me, so here goes one on them: In the ole hoss thief days Joe lost some hosses an got Pete to help him trail the hosses way down in Texas. They found them in a corral an' waited fer the galoots to show up what had stole 'em. When they kum in they wuz heavily armed an asked "What's wanted?" Joe said "well boys, my hosses have got a bad habit of runnin' off an jumpin' into my naylor's corral's. I see they are here. What's the damages?" One of them said "20 bucks." So Joe hand-him the bill. When they got out of hearin' Pete said "Joe have you lost your nerve or gone crazy?" "Neither," said Joe, "I wanted to be shore to git 'em in the Pen, that wuz conterfeit what I give 'em." BILL

TIME TO GET GOING!

Seventh Day Adventists Camp Meeting Gladstone Park, Gladstone, July 18-28

From the first meeting Thursday evening, July 18, when the Oregon Conference president, V. G. Anderson, addresses the campers and visitors at the Adventist camp ground Gladstone, Oregon, until the closing service on Sunday evening, July 28, Gladstone Park will be a busy and interesting place. The largest number of campers ever housed in this city of tents have engaged practically ever piece of tent equipment belonging to this large conference, and in addition to those camped on the grounds, large number of members and friends from adjacent territory will attend the various public meetings at the annual encampment of the Seventh-day Adventists.

A rising bell each morning at 6 will call hundreds forth from their temporary beds to attend devotional exercises. At 9:30 and again at 3 the children gather in various pavilions and tents for their meetings. Separate meetings are held for the Juniors and for those of primary, kindergarten, and even Cradle Roll age. In the main pavilion, day by day, general preaching services will be of particular interest to the public.

The Saturday schedule is a bit different. On that day additional thousands will be in attendance at the Sabbath school beginning at 9:15. This is followed by preaching services at 11 in the main pavilion, in the M. V. and Junior pavilions, and in the German tent. On the first Saturday afternoon at 2:30 an ordination service will be held, when G. E. Patterson, of McMinnville, will be ordained to the gospel ministry; and on the second Saturday afternoon a Junior chorus of approximately a thousand voices will draw more than a capacity crowd in the main pavilion.

Speakers from several of the mission fields in which Seventh-day Adventists operate will tell of the advance of the gospel in far-away lands. A visit at Gladstone Park while the encampment is in progress will bring us into touch with an earnest group of Christians who are there not merely for entertainment but for devotion, for the study of the Word of God, for inspiration to carry on the extensive program fostered by the church.

Oklahoma Annual Picnic

On Sunday, August 4th, Jantzen Beach Park, Portland, will be the scene of the 8th annual picnic of the Oklahoma State Society. All ex-Oklahomans and their friends from all over the State are invited to attend. Mr. Carroll, chairman of the committee announces games, contests and other entertainments including talks by old timers from Oklahoma regarding frontier days. A number of prizes will be given. Free admission to the park; coffee, cream and sugar will be furnished on the ground. Bring your picnic lunch and everybody come and renew old acquaintances.

FRED P. ROGERS

of revising all her war plans. Her immediate task is to turn the Island into a great "underground" impregnable fortress; to make it impossible for Germany to land troops, by sea or by air; and to protect the fortress from bombs, poison gas, and other brutal attacks. Hence, although the British are very bitter at France, yet there are certain compensations. It is now unnecessary for Britain to send any more men or materials to the Continent. Moreover, after she lost her seaports to the Nazis, France would have become a liability to Great Britain had she remained a combatant and had the question of her navy not been settled.

What U. S. Should Do

As for our part, we must not let Great Britain surrender her interest in Canada or any Western Hemisphere possession. The only sure way to prevent this is for the United States to protect the British Navy and British Merchant Marine from the Germans and Italians. These are the real prizes which the dictators want; the final success of Hitler's campaign depend upon securing them. Only with the British Navy and Merchant Marine could Hitler threaten us.

Many believe that we could aid Great Britain most by helping in evacuation of the British aged and children to Canada and the United States. This especially applies to those living in cities. The people of the United States, to "save their own skins" should immediately amend our immigration laws and join Canada in helping such an evacuation. We must, of course, now strip for defense; but we must also supply Great Britain with food, munitions, airplanes, and everything possible. Yea, on credit.

Evacuate Aged and Children

The real answer to our future, however, may be the extent to which we help move the aged and children of the Islands to the United States and Canada. How many of the Island's population would want to come over here, no one knows; perhaps 10,000,000. If so, this would mean that of the 25,000,000 homes in Canada and the United States, only 5,000,000 would be obliged to take one person, and only 2,500,000 would be obliged to take two persons. It is said (but not officially) that there are this number—namely 7,500,000—of homes in the United States and Canada which now have no children.

Our navy and merchant marine should immediately help in moving these people. Rescue work of this kind need not be an act of war. Certainly, we would not be declaring war on Germany or Italy by doing so. We would only be rendering humane service. To my mind, we are ignorant cowards if we fail to do it. Both right and expediency demand such action immediately.
