Hallowe'en passed very quietly in this community with no tricks or treat groups out. All buildings and gates were in their proper places and windows were unscaped.

Mrs. Wilbur Elliott gave a Hallowe'en party for the Junior Sunday School class on Hallowe'en eve. The evening was spent in playing games appropriate to the occasion. At six o'clock a chili bean supper was served. After supper a song was practiced to be sung at church on Sunday. Mrs. Elliott and her guests seated themselves on the floor in front of the fire with the lights turned low and she told them spooky stories which put them in a good mood for their trip home. Those present were: Goldwyn Kulbel, Billy and Ruth Wright, Marilee Pomeroy, Mary Newkirk, Annabelle Van Kleek, Willis Elliott and Mrs. J. H. Aten, teacher of the class.
