Wood in Modern Warfare

Wood is taking an important place in plans for this country's defense program. While wood is not usually thought of as war material, discoveries in new and wider uses of wood have gone so far that today no other material fulfills so many wartime requirements according to the Forest Products Laboratory, Madison, Wis., a research unit of the U. S. Forest Service.

With the calling of the National Guard into camp and preparations for inducting thousands of young men into military training, lumber will be used to house these men. Wood is used in high explosives, dug-out shelters, "ersatz" rations, emergency materials, for uniforms, and liquid fuel. It takes a necessary place in wartime communication and transportation of ammunition and other equipment on land, sea, and in the air.

Acetic acid from wood may be used in the production of certain toxic gases and smokes. Charcoal from wood can replace the coconut-shell and peachpit charcoal formerly used in gas masks to offset poisonous gases, and smoke are eliminated in the masks by means of a special filter paper made from woodpulp. Another product of the forest, resin, is employed for filling the space between bullets in strapping; turpentine, a companion product in the production of resin, is used in flame throwers.

Recent developments in the use of wood, plywood, and conversion products are of particular importance in aircraft construction. Spruce is again in demand for wing beams, wing ribs, and plywood. Here, the United States will profit from a process of kiln-drying spruce, developed at the Laboratory, that cuts the time required from 2 years to 21 days—and gives a better product. In this country two planes of compressed resin-glued wood have been flying for more than a year. The material used in these planes consists of very thin layers of hardwood veneer bound together with the resin.

Research has recently produced a new plastic from wood that is as cheap as any on the market. This plastic made from sawdust and other wood waste, can be molded into numerous articles required by the Army and Navy. Even parachutes, formerly made from Japanese silk, can now be made from wood fibers.

And, last but not least, one of the most effective weapons of modern warfare, propaganda, is printed on paper made from wood.

Bible Questions & Answers

A happy home and how to make it.
 1 Where were the foundations of home laid?

A And the Lord God planted a garden eastward in Eden, and there he put the man whom he had formed. Gen. 2:8.

2 In carrying out his perfect plan, what was still needed?

A And the Lord God said It is not good that the man should be alone; I will make him a helpmate for him. Gen. 2:18.

3 Is the home complete without children?

A Lo children are a heritage of the Lord. Ps. 127:3. Children's children are the crown of old men, and the glory of children are their fathers. Prov. 17:6.

4 Does the happiness of home depend upon the abundance of things possessed?

A A man's life consists not in the abundance of the things which he possesseth. Luke 12:15. Better is a dinner of herbs where love is, than a stalled ox and hatred therein. Prov. 15:17.

5 May a home be undesirable under some circumstances?

A It is better to dwell in the wilderness, than with a contentious and an angry woman. Prov. 21:19.

6 By what means may the mother largely bind home hearts together?

A She openeth her mouth with wisdom, and in her tongue is the law of kindness. Prov. 31:26.

7 Is it ever expedient to speak a word of encouragement to pains-taking keeper of home?

A Her children arise and call her blessed; her husband also, and he praiseth her. Give her of the fruit of her hands, and let her own works praise her in the gates. Prov. 31:28, 31.

8 Is mutual obligation enjoined in a well appointed home?

A Children, obey your parents in the Lord; for this is right. Honor thy father and mother; which is the first commandment with promise; that it may be well with thee, and thou mayest live long on the earth, and ye fathers, provoke not your children to wrath; but bring them up in the nurture and admonition of the Lord. Eph. 6:1-4.

WHITFORD

Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Lawrence honored Mrs. Lawrence's aunt Mrs. R. B. Brown of Garden Home on her birthday with a birthday dinner. Guests besides Mr. and Mrs. Brown were Mr. and Mrs. I. G. McCormick of Mountain Top near Newberg, Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Perkins, Frank Confer and Mrs. B. K. Denney.

Sunday School was well attended. Wesley Graham of Portland, sang a beautiful hymn during the services. There were twenty seven present.

Mrs. Friedenthal and Mrs. Shane visited their sister Mrs. Anna Asbahr one day last week.

The church services were well attended. Douglas Taylor conducted the opening singing. A quartet from Portland rendered a hymn and Fielding Denney took charge of the verses given by various members. He announced the first Chapter of Corinthians will be memorized by all who are willing to study it. A duet by the Misses Powell of Portland was given. D. Varney of Portland preached the sermon.

Next Sunday evening a group of young people are expected to put on a musical program, followed by a short sermon. Everyone is most cordially asked to come and bring your friends.

Well Drillers Plan Party

A committee of well-drillers has been named to arrange a party for well-drillers of the Northwest within the next few weeks, according to Ed Steinman, Portland driller. Members of the committee are A. L. Viessing of Portland, O. E. Janssen of Clackamas, Archie Brownlee and Francis Livermore, both of Beaverton, and Art Gaunt of Aloha. The naming of the committee is the outgrowth of a party for 31 well-drillers given last week. O. B. Olson of Boring was chosen president and Frank Gaunt of Aloha, secretary.

Elections, Earthquakes, etc

Hello Folks: Well Roosevelt won a "third term" on his "deals", an England seems to be a winner in the big war with Greece, Fogs, an Earthquake as her allies. Dawgone if two big earthquakes in the right spot wouldn't make the world safe for Democracy for quite a spell.

Dawgone if I aint got a nephew in Western Oklahoma who has won out in the last election by gittin' himself elected on the Republican ticket to the U. S. Congress in our Eighth Congressional Dist. His name is Ross Ritzley. He used to ride tumblebushes when he wuz a boy an then he got to ridin' ponies an herdin' cattle an now since he got to be a lawyer he has learned to herd votes in a winnin' way. BILL

Portland League Members Speakers at County Meet

Mrs. Don McGraw, president of the Portland League of Women Voters, and Mrs. Groat, chairman of social welfare, will be the speakers at the November meeting of the Washington County League to be held at Scholls, Monday, November 25, 12:30 luncheon.

The set-up for the next two months study will be explained and will include public welfare and state institutions, including the industrial training schools for delinquent boys and girls. The speaker will outline the work already accomplished and what is expected of county League members. Plans were made at a meeting of chairmen of departments at Hillsboro Tuesday.

New Hotel Lenox is Comfortable & Home Like

The new Hotel Lenox located at S. W. 3rd avenue, corner of Main street, Portland, is popular with the people of the Tualatin Valley and nearby vicinities. The manager, Mr. Peter Kosturos, strives to infuse in his service all the comforts of home and there is no one who has ever stayed there, but will agree that he has succeeded.

This is a quiet, dignified hotel which appeals to the people of refinement. Located conveniently on Third avenue near the Court House and City Hall, and has established a new standard of hotel comfort which is a real asset to the people of our district. If there were a few more hotels like the New Hotel Lenox in the city of Portland, staying over night in a hotel would be more enjoyable.

In every respect, the aim of the New Hotel Lenox and of Mr. Peter Kosturos is to give guests service that is more than just satisfactory, and to make you feel thoroughly comfortable and at home. There can be no question but that he has attained a marvelous degree of success.

People of the Tualatin Valley who are planning to stay all night in Portland, would do well to consult Mr. Kosturos about rates. This writer can assure you that everything possible will be done to make your stay comfortable and enjoyable. The New Hotel Lenox and Peter Kosturos truly deserve this small token of esteem.
