What Shall I have for Dinner Tonight—

Is one of the things heard in every household. It is quite a puzzle for the wife to serve something different every day and members of the family have aversions to certain foods, although it may be the favorite of others.

A simple upside-down beef pie can be made with 1/2 c ground beef. Put 1/2 c chopped onions into pan and fry in 2 T of shortening. Add 1 can condensed tomato soup, 1/2 t salt and the beef. Heat, then pour in a baking dish, add 1 t celery salt, dash pepper. Make a biscuit dough and spread on top. Bake 20 min. in oven 475 deg. Serve in bake dish. 4 servings.

What is your favorite dinner dish for the family? Will be glad to publish it—mail it today. Help the Puzzled Housewives.

Everyone can enjoy fruit juices for breakfast. The Columbia Food Store this week offer grapefruit, tomato, and pineapple juice at great savings also many other items. Ever try blending grapefruit and apricot juice yum! yum!

The housewife would appreciate it if hubby should buy some paint at McCready Lumber Co. and paint those kitchen chairs and table so as to brighten up the kitchen for Xmas. Safeway's ad in this weeks issue is quoting a real price on picnic hams. Beef roasts, lard and many groceries featured.

Millers says it pays to buy the Best. They have two deliveries daily, 11 a. m. and 4 p. m. This is a great convenience to busy housewives who do not have time to go down town.
