

KINTON

At the Ladies Aid meeting held at the home of Mrs. John Daniels last Thursday it was voted to finish the comforter donated by Mrs. Kershaw and keep it on hand to be sold or given away later. The following officers were also elected for the next year: President, Mrs. Fred Van Kleek; vice-pres., Mrs. Albert Scott, secretary, Mrs. Erma Cron; treas., Mrs. Marvin Ricks. There were 29 members and two visitors present. The next meeting will be held January 2, at the home of Mrs. J. H. Aten with Mrs. Lavina Wedeking as joint hostess.

Mrs. J. H. Aten spent the week-end in Portland visiting Mrs. Clara Ryan. Marvin Ogle was absent three days last week with a bad cold.

The John Deere Plow Co. is sponsoring a free show, entertainment and lunch at noon at the Kinton Grange hall Friday starting at 10 a. m. and lasting all day. Door prizes will be given during the day.

The following pupils are on the honor roll at the Kinton school having been neither tardy or absent for the past six weeks: Edith M. Van Kleek, Roberta Gembella, David Elliott, and Johnny Mayfield.

WEST SLOPE

West Slope Improvement club will meet tonight at the Sylvan school. The main feature of the evening is a Christmas party for the children of the district. Community singing of the Christmas carols will be a part of the program.

Three new trustees elected at the Gabel country day school consist of Dr. Leland V. Belknap, Joseph R. Gerber and Thomas Dant, according to an announcement by Miss Priscilla E. Gabel, president. Since its incorporation in 1936 and since purchase of the Multnomah Golf club property, the school has made rapid progress. In addition to the original buildings it now has a new gymnasium, manual training shop and a 3 1/2 acre athletic field.

BEAVERTON

There were over 200 guests attending the annual turkey dinner and bazaar given by the Congregational Ladies Aid last Thursday evening. The candy, aprons, and fancy work booths were sold out. Following the dinner F. H. Schoene showed moving pictures of Yellowstone Park and Brice Canyon and gave descriptive talks which were greatly enjoyed by the guests.

F. O. Howland of Beaverton, and C. M. Bebout of Aloha, had first place prize winning fox furs on display in Portland this week at the Public Service building under auspices of Oregon Fox and Mink Breeders association. There were 60 furs on display in the window belonging to members estimated to be worth $3500. Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Janssen and son Wilbur left for Texas Saturday where they will visit with their son Edward until after the holidays.

Misses Mable Richter, Helen Merritt and Ethel Rice spent last Friday evening with Miss Ann Kamna at Hillsboro.

James Downing is confined to his home with a broken rib and bruises as a result of a fall down the stairs of his home.

Mrs. C. E. Mason has returned to her home here following several weeks at the hospital.

Mrs. Melvin Beeler is confined to her home with flu.
