

Babson Says---

I do not mention what Christmas Day may bring to the people of many lands. It is fitting that, in the midst of our happiness and peace, we should offer a fervent prayer that they, too, may soon again celebrate Christmas as the Prince of Peace would wish.

At this time, national health must be considered in terms of national defense. Christmas Seal funds "purchase" national health.

SANTA CLAUS will be at our big Christmas party with GIFTS FOR ALL.

FOURTH AVE. at TAYLOR ST.

Food, clothing, and other donations, are loading down students and buses alike as contributions pour in during the relief drive. A sample of the donors includes from left to right: Jack See, Dick Randall, John Van Horn, Pat McClure, Pryllis Foe, and Warren Smith.

Hastings (Bill) Denney was operated on for appendicitis and a rupture last Saturday morning.

Sunday School in attendance twenty seven members. A number of those who have been victims of the flu were able to be back again. Douglas Taylor conducted the services and Harry West presented a very appealing sermon. Special music was rendered by two young ladies, a solo and a duet.

Mrs. Vernonia Davies who passed away recently, was a former resident of this community. She lived for a number of years with her parents and family on what is now known as the Wm. Matzke place.

With war come renewed attacks from tuberculosis. Christmas Seal funds help control the disease which will be more costly in 1941 than ever before.
