

St. Mary's of Valley Academy Students Get Red Cross Papers

Last Tuesday, Mr. Norman of the Washington County Red Cross Unit, came to distribute the elementary and secondary certificates earned by the members of the First Aid class. Mr. Norman was accompanied by Miss Jane Doyle, Secretary of the Multnomah Red Cross Unit, Dr. Weise of the First Aid and Life Saving Department, and Dr. Dawson, Multnomah First Aid Instructor. Instructive little talks were given by the visitors from the Multnomah County Unit. Miss Doyle mentioned the requirements necessary for a Red Cross nurse and she related a number of interesting incidents that occurred in France during the last World War. Miss Doyle was one of the pioneering Red Cross nurses who spent many months in service in the American Red Cross Hospital in France.

Miss Kathleen McCrae, Home Demonstration Agent for Washington County, paid a visit to the Home Economics Department. Miss McCrae praised highly the work of the class as well as the work done by the 4-H club.

The Christian Doctrine class sponsored an oratorical contest.

Ina Pauline Bowen of Milwaukie won first place. The title of her discourse was "The Advantages of the Religious Life." Lorraine Schneider of Hillsboro won second place for her paper on Prayer. Helen Hertel of Roy was third and her topic was "The Necessity of Baptism."

Whitford Lodge Members Entertained at Dinner

A group of Odd Fellows and Rebekahs from this community were entertained with others at dinner Saturday evening by Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Scott of Sherwood.

Ivan Gilson is spending several days with his sister Mrs. Eunice Waages and family of Clatskanie.

Mrs. Helen Ricezy was a caller at the home of Mrs. B. K. Denney on Thursday.

Donald Gardner and friends called on Doris' father C. B. Gardner on Thursday.

Beaverton grange met in all day session Saturday with all officers present, also all members of standing committees. The third and fourth degrees were conferred on Mrs. Roland of Multnomah. A most interesting and instructive program was put on in the afternoon. The roll called current events and gave many educational ideas with much food for thought. Washington County Pomona grange meets with Beaverton grange January 22. Mr. Whitaker, master of Gale grange at Forest Grove, Edwin Brown of Evening Star and Charles T. Dickinson were guests. Four birthdays were celebrated with a beautiful birthday cake at dinner.
