

Rev. Benjamin D. Dagwell

Girls from Tualatin Valley planning a college career will find the location of St. Helen's Hall contributing greatly to their needs, according to an announcement from the 72-year-old school issued for the benefit of new students in the second term starting January 27.

Boys may enter this school in grades up to and including the sixth, starting with the pre-school or kindergarten. The traditions of nearly three quarters of a century was broken this year.

Located at the foot of Portland heights mid-way between the Barbour boulevard and Canyon road entrances to the city, the block-square campus of this Episcopal institution is especially convenient for non-boarding students who live in the Tualatin Valley.

The Right Reverend Benjamin D. Dagwell, Bishop of Oregon, Episcopal church, is president of the board of trustees. Other members of the present board are Judge J. Hunt Hendrickson, Mr. Clarence Porter, Mr. A. M. Ellsworth, the Reverend R. A. Court Simmonds, the Reverend Arthur J. Mockford and the Reverend Lansing E. Kempton.

The junior college department was added in 1932, offering courses in liberal arts, pre-professional and semi-vocational fields. Included in the course of study now are nursing, secretarial subjects, home economic,
