WEST SLOPE

The Senior class of Gabel Country Day school visited the state capitol at Salem February 19 to see how laws are made and how the public affairs of Oregon are conducted.

The Washington County Council of Churches at its recent annual business meeting at Beaverton, attended by 150 representatives of some five denominations, elected Robert N. Torpet, Hillsboro, Methodist church member, as president; Willa Nolan, Forest Grove, as secretary, and named three regional vice-presidents, Miss Dorothy Howes of Forest Grove, Mrs. R. Cummings, of Hillsboro and Rev. F. R. Sibley of Scholls.

President Torbet has reappointed Mrs. Harry Barlett of Forest Grove, as chairman of migratory labor committee and A. J. Yeomans of Forest Grove as program committee chairman.

The next in a series of three meetings to be held by the group is set for March 31 at Forest Grove.
