Kalp-o-Lite Sanitorium
"Non-Surgical Institute"

Kalp-o-Lite Sanitorium of Portland, owned and operated by Pacific Kelp Products Co., for the past 15 years, has been exceptionally successful in non-surgical treatments of human ailments. If you have Sinus trouble, they reach the cause of the infection and clear it away by natural methods. Varicose Veins and Ulcers are very readily reduced with their late Australian wrap treatment. You work and walk as usual and relief begins with the first wrap. Rheumatism Neuritis, aches and pains find quick and lasting relief through their Kalp-o-Lite Medicated Steam Treatments. — Non-Surgical treatment of diseases and conditions peculiar to women, have saved many a woman from a life of invalidism. They treat practically all forms of chronic ailments and diseases, and offer consultation and examination without charge or obligation.

Beaverton nine defeated Hillsboro Friday at Beaverton 29 to 25, putting them in third place in the Yamhill-Tualatin Valley league. A tight first half ended in a 10 to 10 tie.

Dean Collins to Speak
Friday at Beaverton

Beaverton Community Garden club is sponsoring a potluck dinner in the Kiwanis hall, Friday evening, February 28th at 6:30 o'clock to which husbands are invited. Dean Collins of the Oregon Journal will be the principal speaker.

Bruce Clement, who last Fall transferred from the U.S.S. Detroit, stationed at Pearl Harbor, Hawaii, to the Naval Hospital Corps School at San Diego, finished the required course as an Honor Graduate.

Having a final average of 93% out of a class of 95 men he was given the choice of Mare Island S. F. or the Great Lakes, Ill. hospital base. Having never been East, Bruce chose the Great Lakes and upon arrival there the sight of snok looked grand to him, but after a few weeks of it says he would just as soon have some Good Old Oregon Rain.
