A Slice of America

Everyone who buys a life insurance policy buys a section of America. Last year, for instance, life insurance companies invested more than $600,000,000 of its policyholders' reserves in the bonds of factories and industrial plants. It invested gigantic sums in government bonds, and in rural and urban mortgages.

Beautiful Auto Tour Over The Fourth

It's hard to pick a holiday drive to please the whole family—to visit points of interest to each member. One trip stands out over all others in diversified interest—and this trip may be made leisurely in a day. The writer is referring to a drive over the beautiful Columbia Highway—crossing the Gorge at Bridge of the Gods—return by way of the Evergreen Highway.

One of the most enjoyable trips ever taken by the writer started out Base Line Road, following along the high banks of the Sandy to the River Crossing joining the Columbia Highway. Then leisurely over this beautiful road, with casual stops at the various falls and scenic points. A stop at Bonneville Dam to view the beautiful grounds and the mad rush of water over the spillway. The water is at its high peak now and spills over the top of the dam in torrents. Then a stop at Bonneville Fish hatchery to inspect the trout and bring back happy memories of fly fishing in white waters.

Driving on along the new wide highways to Cascade Locks and crossing over the 135 foot high Bridge of the Gods, which vantage points furnishes distant views easterly and westerly of the beautiful Columbia Gorge. Probably the most interesting feature to many is inspection of the novel fish ladders and elevators from the north bank at Bonneville which provides passage of salmon over the dam.

Return by way of the Evergreen Highway in Washington to Vancouver affords many beautiful vistas from points of vantage along this highway.

Hundreds of picnicking spots all along the way—truly a most satisfactory outing for the whole family—a trip to remember. You'll turn the leaves of your album this winter and make the trip in your mind's eye again and again, so be sure to take a camera along. Happy Fourth!

A non-jury trial with verdict resting solely upon Judge R. Frank Peters was heard in a circuit court case this week, the State vs. Sekicki Uye-sugi. A grand jury indictment was returned April 24, charging "burning with intent to injure the insured." The action was filed against the Japanese farmer after he was alleged to have burned a dwelling on a Sherwood route near Tualatin for the purpose of obtaining insurance.

THE FOOD FOR DEFENSE

A VITAL PART of making America strong is to make Americans stronger... with the food they need. Vitally aware of this are the thousands of trained and experienced people who are engaged in the nation's great food industry—the farmers, who produce the food; the manufacturers, who process it; and the grocery men, who distribute it—proudly working in the best way they know to supply the energy necessary to do the big job.
