AMERICANISM

Americanism is love of country, loyalty to its institutions and ideals, eagerness to defend it against all enemies, undivided allegiance to the flag, and a desire to secure the blessings of liberty to ourselves and posterity.

WOULD YOU O. K. THIS

Prof. Hull, six-footer, black hair, piercing eyes and of giant frame, gave out the hymns, then read from the Bible and led in prayer. In this order the High School took up each morning back in New York State. And by their law is not the Book so read to this present time?

Prof. Hull and his kind were strong for the well-known Three R's: Readin', Ritin' and Rithmetick, but also for another "R," "Ruined," that is—Ruined by the Fall. You hear God tell Adam, our first parent that if he ate of the fruit of the tree, he would surely die. Would Adam obey God or not? Nothing wrong with the tree nor the fruit; it put Adam under a simple test. Adam chose not to obey. By that he sinned and fell. He passed the sin on to us and the race was ruined by the fall.

Let the second "R" stand for Redeemed as in "Redeemed by the Blood." The soul that sinneth, it shall die, says the Bible. And God never forgives a sin until the penalty has been paid. But God is willing to have a substitute die for the sinner. In line with this, the old-time Hebrew offered a lamb upon the altar. By the dying lamb's blood, the Hebrew saw his own sins covered over, for—"I have given it to you upon the altar to make a covering for your souls." So the sins were put out of sight; God would not see them.

Then in the fulness of time came Christ, the Lamb of God, that taketh away the sin of the world. All those sins that lay covered over were cleansed away and ours also this side of the cross. "There is a fountain, filled with blood; drawn from Immanuel's veins. And sinners plunged beneath that flood, lose all their guilty stains." Yes—Ruined by the Fall and Redeemed by the Blood.

The last "R" is for "Renewed." As in "Renewed by the Holy Spirit." It is the work of the Spirit to make us Christlike in thought, word and deed. He indwells the saved and makes their body his temple. As they yield to the Spirit, they have a story to tell. It is of enemies forgiven and loved and prayed for; of old grudges laid aside; of the Bible feeding their soul; of prayer promises claimed; to the casting down of Satan's strongholds.

So, folks, may Christ not only become Savior to you but also your Cheer, Hope, Joy, Strength and Sufficient Portion every hour of the live-long day.

Trip Into Old Country

Hello Folks: Well, last Sunday I took a trip over into my old home county of Lincoln and talked in a village named Fallis where they have so many poets and writers. The Poet Laureate of the state of Oklahoma lives here and is seventy years "young." It's quite a nice experience to drive over into this village. Many folks from all over the U. S. A. go over there like they go to Claremore and Oologah the old stompin' ground of Will Rogers. At Fallis, Jennie Harris Oliver is the noted poetess, but there are others there. Cecil Brown writes for a heap of papers and then there is Blanche Seale Hunt who writes the LITTLE BROWN KOKO for a flock of papers. Vingie E. Roe, now of Napa, California, got her start as a writin' at Fallis. BILL
