

Stratton Motor Theft Cleared by Arrest

Eldred Myron Markley, Dilley, entered plea of guilty to two informations of burglary in the circuit court last week. Waiving time for sentence the railroad section worker was sentenced to serve five years in the state penitentiary, sentences to run concurrently.

Arrest of Markley by Sergeant Walter Hatfield of the state police and Deputy Sheriff R. H. Busen solved the case of prowling of the Stratton Motor company at Beaverton.

Election of officers and outlining of plans for a county wide 4-H club conference of school were among the main items of business for consideration by Washington county 4-H club leaders at a Tuesday evening meeting at Hillsboro.

November 15 was chosen as the date for a 4-H club conference to be held at Hillsboro at the Chamber of Commerce rooms.

Mrs. E. H. Bergin has been confined to her home and under doctors treatment. She is improved at this writing and will be about in a few days.

Mrs. W. J. Scott was luncheon hostess at the Campbell Court hotel in Portland for members of the Tuesday Bridge club Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. H. A. Nielsen was a guest of the club. Mrs. F. H. Schoene held high score.

A group of people including Miss Nancy Larson, Miss Dora Burke, Miss Frances Auhll, Mrs. Ethel Britch and Bryon Britch, motored to Seaside and Cannon Beach Sunday. I, followed by a reception at the Auhll, Miss Dora Burke and Mrs. Ethel Britch enjoyed the horse show Wednesday night at the International Livestock show.

Miss Hildah Hanes of Beaverton, was elected president of the group. Mrs. Noreen Allyn, Beaverton, vice president and Miss Marjorie Apperson, Hillsboro, secretary - treasurer. Named to the executive council were F. J. Bechen and Mrs. E. Ray Miller of Hillsboro.

Mrs. R. L. Lacy was brought to her home from Good Samaritan hospital Tuesday. She is recovering nicely from a major operation.

WHITFORD

There were fifty seven at Sunday School and church. Mr. Van Brugen delivered an interesting and instructive sermon. Mr. Russell conducted the singing. Through a misunderstanding Thomas Dryden was placed at another church meeting. He is to be here next Sunday and will bring special music. Before Mr. Van Brugen was introduced W. E. Garnett made a few pleasing remarks encouraging those present to try and bring one person at least to next Sunday's meeting and then introduced Mr. Van Brugen.

The Neighborhood club met at the home of Mrs. John Wilson where her mother Mrs. Smith, acted as hostess.

KINTON

Mrs. Lena Grabhorn returned from a two weeks visit with her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. John Schmidt of Brady, Wash. While there she also spent some time at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Clemens, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Lough and Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Schmidt, nieces and nephew of Mrs. Grabhorn in Montezuma. She also visited Captain and Mrs. Manks of Elma, Wash. She was greatly interested in the hobby that Washington pursue, that of hunting, cutting and polishing agates. They have a most beautiful collection gathered throughout Idaho, Oregon and their own state.

On the evening preceding her return home she was pleasantly surprised when about forty-five relatives, neighbors and friends walked in for the evening. They wished her a pleasant trip home and another return to their midst soon.

A folding cot was added to the school equipment for cases of sudden illness incurred by the pupils while at school. A football, two baseballs and a bat was added to the playground equipment.

A fifth year 4-H sewing club was formed with Mrs. Gladys Hall as leader. Members so far are: Roberta Thompson, president; Marjorie Pomeroy secretary; and Goldwyn Kulbel as vice-president.

Wet spots in the school grounds received a much needed treatment of a load of gravel.

Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Newkirk and children were Sunday dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Churchill of Hillsboro. The birthdays of Patty Churchill and Nora Ann Newkirk were the occasion for the dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. Benson Ward of Portland were Saturday night dinner guests at the D. G. Ward home in honor of Mr. Ward's birthday.

Mrs. James Richards spent from Sunday till Thursday last week at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Moffitt of Clackamas. Annabelle Van Kleek was hostess to a group of young folks from Pleasant Valley Saturday night. The evening was spent in making candy and playing games. Those present were Ruth and Irene Van Kleek, Alfred Boyles, Cecil Van Kleek, Rosemary Aten and the hostess.

Rosemary Aten is staying in Portland where she is working in the NYA.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Bergin and her mother, Mrs. Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Berger and daughter Betty, Mr. and Mrs. V. L. Noel and daughter Mary Jo, all of Portland, were dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Bergin, Friday. The occasion being Natalie Bergin's birthday, also the birthday of her aunt and uncle. An enjoyable evening was spent playing games and visiting.

Searles-Hentges Wedding Saturday in Portland

Miss Winifred Faith Hentges and Mr. Paul David Searles were married Saturday at high noon in the Foursquare church in Portland, Rev. Harold Jefferies performed the ceremony in the presence of a large number of wedding guests.

The bride, a daughter of Mrs. Faye Hartford of Portland, wore a traveling costume, a blue wool frock with black accessories and a corsage of orchids. Her father gave her in marriage. She was attended by Mrs. Donald Taylor.

The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. George Searles of Beaverton. The best man was Mr. Jack Slatery and ushers were Messrs. Donald Taylor and Richard Jackson.

A reception to the two families and a few close friends was held at the church. Mrs. Gertrude Hartford assisted the bride's mother in serving.

Mr. and Mrs. Searles flew to Seattle en route to Victoria and Vancouver, B. C., on their wedding trip. They will be at home in Portland after October 15 at 2921 SE Alder St.
