Established for more than 35 years and acknowledged as Portland's Pioneer credit jewelers, Reingold's, in this issue make an announcement of special interest to couples about to engage on the sea of matrimony. Ben Reingold, manager, showed us a letter from Readers Digest wherein Reingold's Jewelers was complimented by the national magazine for the fairness and reasonable price charged their field man in the recent check up on service charges conducted over the nation, as affecting watch repairs.

Voice of Prophecy Meetings Scheduled

The well-known "Voice of Prophecy" Radio group, who have been conducting evangelistic meetings with large crowds in the City Auditorium for the past number of weeks, are moving to the Woodmen Hall, on the corner of 6th and S. E. Alder, beginning Sunday night, November 16.

As usual, preceding the main lecture which starts at 8 o'clock, there will be conducted a half hour pictured Bible Study, called "Pictured Truth", at 7 o'clock. Beautiful pictures never seen in any other city, will be shown on a beautiful beaded twelve foot screen. This feature has proved to be one of the most attractive, and appealing of the whole series, and is free to all. A mimeographed copy of this illustrated talk will be given out to all who attend.

The King's Herald, considered by tens of thousands of radio fans to be the best on the Pacific Coast, will sing several inspiring numbers before and after each main lecture. Every music lover greatly enjoys their well-rendered numbers.

The "Voice of Prophecy" has just returned from a hurried trip to the East to make final arrangements for a coast-to-coast broadcast. His timely sermons on present day conditions have proved a real source of information to his large "crowds," as he traces the course of world events from the Bible, showing how they were all foretold thousands of years ago accurately, and what they mean to us living in these days.

The admission is free, and the public is cordially invited to be at the Woodmen Hall, 615 SE Alder, Portland. Come early and sing at 7:30.

Another Christmas nears the zero hour with the gift problem a puzzling one. Lipman and Wolfe watch department offer several splendid suggestions to make shopping easier. An old watch in a new case and old ring settings on new mountings are lifelong gifts appreciated. They also do all kinds of jewelry repairing at moderate prices. When in Portland stop at the watch department in Lipman and Wolfe's at the fifth street entrance and get an estimate on jewelry that needs work.
