Safety Assured for Tiny Tourists

Tiny tourists sometimes grow restless on long motor trips and their limitless energy and curiosity require double checking to insure that every safety precaution is being taken by their parents. With the entire rear compartment of the family Chevrolet as his personal playground, this youngster assumes a favorite perch that ordinarily would be dangerous. However, a simple adjustment, easily made by Chevrolet mechanics, converted the rear door handle to a safety-action handle, which "free wheels" and does not open the door. After the lock is adjusted to safety position, as indicated in the inset, the lock button is depressed and the inside handle then will not open the door, rendering it "child-proof." Release of the lock button enables the driver to open the door as usual.

BARBWIRE BILL

over here in this fine town of Enid, located in N. W. Oklahoma, where they grow wheat, oil, an' preachers, here in this Phillips University town. Now this town is a friendly place. Why thunder-in-lightnin', this is such a friendly town, EVEN THE PREACH attendin' this State Convention is a gittin' sorter friendly with each other. You know it's mighty nice to git out an' make some new friends every year. We shore like our ole time friends, but they have a way of dyin'-off if we don't make some new friends every year we are a goin' to find ourself after awhile about like a bull frog a settin' on the bank where a pond has dried up.

Yours for more friends an' less wars, but let's put Hitler where he belongs so we can all be friendly.
