Defense Bond Quiz

O. Who said: "I only regret that I have but one life to lose for my country?"
A. Nathan Hale, who gave his life for America, like great numbers of his fellow countrymen. We are only asked to lend our dollars for Defense Bonds and Stamps to defend the liberty for which they died.
Q. Where I work there is no pay-roll allotment plan for the buying of Defense Savings Bonds and Stamps. How can I get one started?
A. This depends on your position, and the kind of organization in which you are employed. Generally speaking, your immediate superior would be the proper person to receive your suggestion that you would like to have a voluntary pay-roll allotment plan introduced. The firm's bank can supply information about such a plan.
Note—To buy Defense Bonds and Stamps, go to the nearest post office, bank, or savings and loan association; or write to the Treasurer of the United States, Washington, D. C. Also Stamps now are on sale at retail stores.

GEMS OF THOUGHT SERVICE TRUE WEALTH

To have what we want is riches, but to be able to do without is power.—George MacDonald

My riches consist not in the extent of my possessions, but in the fewness of my wants.—Joseph Brotherton.

Rest assured that He in whom dwelleth all life, health, and holiness, will supply all your needs according to His riches in glory.—Mary Baker Eddy.

Keep down as much as you can the standards of your wants, for in this lies a great secret of manliness, true wealth, and happiness.—William E. Gladstone.

Not oaks alone are trees, nor roses flowers; Much humble wealth makes rich this world of ours. —Leigh Hunt

Charge them that are rich in this world, that they be not highminded, nor trust in uncertain riches, but in the living God, who giveth us richly all things to enjoy.—1 Timothy 6:17.
