WHY ARGUE THE OBVIOUS?

It would sound strange to hear Mr. Henry Kaiser stand up and argue that ships were essential to the war effort. Fortunately, he doesn't have to. Everyone knows it. But there are industries just as essential as shipbuilding, whose wartime operating difficulties are immensely aggravated because their essentiality has never been adequately recognized.

Such an industry is retail distribution. The clothes on your backs, the shoes we wear, the food we eat, must be put within our reach by the distribution industry. No service is more essential. Speaking for the industry, David R. Craig, president of the American Retail Federation, has this to say of merchandising: "We are essential because we are the industry upon which the public must rely in order to obtain the goods which it must have. We do not know of any other way by which the civilian public can get its goods. The retailer is the quarter-master to the civilian population. The real question is whether the civilian population is essential."

If the civilian population is essential, then the industry which supplies it with necessities must also be essential. Since no reasonable person questions the need for a hardworking, highly productive civilian population in wartime, why should the job which the merchant must carry on be minimized? Why should the merchants, in addition to feeding and clothing us, be forced to argue the obvious—that efficient distribution of necessities is as vital as an adequate supply of necessities?

RECOGNITION

The Army Air Forces will conduct a school of Aircraft Recognition in Portland. This school will be operated for the benefit of our loyal citizens who have been manning the watches at our observation posts; and its purpose is to make our observers even more efficient in their role as the Eyes and Ears of the Aircraft Warning Service.

The compliment paid the Ground Observers by the Army Air Forces in telling them that they are ready to absorb a technical course of Army instruction is very great. When the war first began and volunteers were asked to serve on the observation post, many people questioned the importance of the work, and some were out and out derisive. The Ground Observer Corps is an active part of our defense against enemy air attack and the fact that your Country and my Country deems it necessary and important enough to have observers learn Aircraft Recognition should, in itself, stimulate our own desires to serve.

"Blessed are they who have not seen, but who believed." John 21.

AMERICAN HEROES

BY LEFF

Hyman Epstein knew that after wounding a man the Japs around Sananana were withholding their fire, using the injured soldier for bait until unarmed medical aides like himself came into range. Yet again and again he crept out under sniper fire to rescue wounded comrades until at last the Japs got him. "That kid was the best," his commander said of determined little Hyman Epstein. An Airman's Prayer

BY SGT. HUGH BRODIE

Almighty and all present Power,
Short is the prayer I make to Thee
I do not ask in battle hour
For any shield to cover me.

The vast unalterable way,
From which the stars do not depart
May not be turned aside to stay
The bullet flying to my heart.

I ask no help to strike my foe,
I seek no petty victory here,
The enemy I hate, I know
To Thee is also dear.

But this I pray, be at my side
When death is drawing thru the sky
Almighty God who also died,
Teach me the way that I should die.

Permission Needed For Public Gathering

Groups of individuals sponsoring public events in Oregon must follow the same procedure as last year in getting permission to hold the attraction, regardless of whether the site is in the dimout zone, if it will attract 500 or more persons. Request for application blanks should be mailed to Leo G. Spitzbart, defense liaison officer for public gatherings. Address: Oregon State Fair, Salem.

Use Tax Stamp Due July First

The rose-tinted stamp on your windshield, denoting payment of the current fiscal year's federal use tax stamp, expires June 30, and from all indications Uncle Sam on or about June 15 will be asking for $5 to cover the 1943-44 span which starts on July 1.
