

Ghost Walk

It was a wild night on the sea of Galilee, the night for ghosts to walk. The hard-muscled fishermen who followed Jesus, strained at the oars as they bucked the blast, their little craft rising and falling with the heaving sea.

A ghost! A ghost, one cries. The others add their voice. See ONE in white, walking on the water. Now He is hid in the trough of the sea; again He is lifted and turns toward the ship.

Then came His greeting—BE OF GOOD CHEER; IT IS I, BE NOT AFRAID. He comes and enters into the boat and at His—PEACE BE STILL, the winds and the waves obey His will.

When the night is black and the waves run high turn the case over to Him. "I came to Jesus as I was weary and worn and sad. I found in Him a resting place and He has made me glad."

What's Ahead in 1944
We can hope for much, but we have a guarantee of nothing. There is however one thing we can do with certainty—We can "Commit our way unto the Lord (for the New Year 1944), trust also in Him and He shall bring it to pass." Psalm 37:5.
