Rather than spend time dicing potatoes, keep an empty powder can for the purpose. By punching a few holes in the bottom of the can to let out the air, and by using the sharp top edge as a chopper, you can cut potatoes to desired size in just a second or two. This can be used to cut out biscuit dough also and cookies, if first dipped in flour, so the dough will not stick to the can.

Discovers Good Well Of Water

Hello Folks:
Well, over here in West Virginia in Matooka, hemmed in by Mrs. this city water has got too doddered much mineral in it for "yours truly" One day last week I wuz out in the county for dinner and discovered a well of water that quieted down my bad symptoms—now the folks out there bring the water to me and I'm as happy as a hair lipped old maid a waddin' a whistlin' match! You know what we drink has a heap to do with our life even if its only water, not to speak of "Bug-house juice."

Strikes Wife No More

"If God can save you, he can save me," said Old Pal who was a heavy drinker.
This, God did and later on Old Pal's wife told her joy—"Pal drinks no more; he never strikes me nor the children."
Pal came into such joy in the Lord that he hunted up his brother and read the Bible to him. After some days, Pal asked brother what he now believed?
"I got to believe the Bible, for you never could have quit drinking of yourself," said the man. And out of it brother accepted Christ as the Lord of his life.

It all began back in a mission in New York. The drinking wife-beater was asked—"Will you from this day accept Christ as your Lord?" The man, a Mohammedan, from Asia, hesitated a long time and then began to say—"I praise you Lord Jesus, I praise you." Here the Mission head said he saw the new life beginning in the man. Later the man himself said—
"I am now a believer, baptized and of the assembly of God's children. Praise the Lord."
And when an old pal offered him a drink, he refused it saying he had quit liquor. The Old Pal asked how he could quit and he told of how he had given his heart to the Lord, that he believed in the Lord Jesus and was saved.

Out of it the first man was saved in the Mission. Then Old Pal and Pal's brother and Pal's wife. Four brought into Victory over self and sin.
And what for you? Will you be put away in a drunkard's grave? No drunkard shall inherit the kingdom of God. See 1 Corinthians 6:9-10. But believe on the Lord Jesus Christ and thou shalt be saved. Acts 16:31. KNOW YOUR BIBLE.

Dan Harmon for Congress
We'd rather be represented in Congress by Dan Harmon, a sound business man and farmer who has had years of experience in foreign countries, than to be represented by a wise politician who lacks both practical experience and knowledge of foreign affairs. A vote for Harmon is a vote for free enterprise, free agriculture and practical legislation. Newber: Graphic.—Paid Adv.

Glencullen Goes Over Top In Red Cross Drive

This community through the efforts of some of its enterprising residents has recently completed a most successful Red Cross Drive in the interests of the Red Cross. With Mrs. John Hess as its chairman her committee consisted of her mother Mrs. John Pullen, Mesdames Gus Abraham, Art Beaver, William Diesch, Ross, Rogers and Marcielle the latter of Cambridge Village. They covered the extensive territory from Cambridge Village North to Council Crest and as far South West as the Washington County Boundary line, and over a period of only two weeks. The ladies were successful in bringing in over $170 from generous citizens, to help swell Portland's contribution.

Mrs. Carroll Jones and her teammate Mrs. Jess covered the Multnomah territory and were advisors for the Glencullen group.
Glencullen Dorcas society met last month at the home of Mrs. Lubke. Ten ladies completed a layette for the Red Cross which they presented to it with $5, their monthly contribution.
Mrs. David Emsloe of SW Martha St. entertained over the Easter holiday her mother, Mrs. Mary McDaniels of Powell Butte.

An old lady in church was seen to bow whenever the name of Satan was mentioned. One day the minister met her and asked why she did so. "Well, politeness costs nothing—and you never know," the old lady replied.
