TOTAL CONSCRIPTION!

YOUR QUESTIONS ANSWERED
Part I: National Operations

6. What Does 'Conscription of Money' Mean?
The conscription of money means the suspension of all corporate financing, buying, selling; the suspension of profits, interest, rent, dues, taxes; and the freezing of the financial operations of states, provinces, counties and municipalities.

7 How Would Business Be Conducted?
No business would be conducted in the sense that we now consider business. We cannot conduct a total war with 'business as usual' and if we stop to think, we see that we cannot conduct a total war with the methods of business at all.

Total Conscription would call for the suspension of all so-called 'business' activities as outlined in the previous question. There would be no markets and competitive trading—no buying, selling, or government purchasing from corporations and individuals. The title to all materials, whether originating from agriculture, mining, manufacturing, the forest, or the sea, would be transferred to the federal Governments before being shipped on any common carrier. This means that individual corporate purchasing and government purchasing from private corporations will be replaced by mass government purchase (allocation or requisition). This can be reduced to the simple formula: that every purchase order is for the full 30-day operation-output of mine, factory, mill, etc.

This would eliminate the tremendous flood of purchase orders, shipping bills, invoices, checks, drafts, contracts, and general red tape, involved in every bullet, gun, tank and plane, and—in post-war projects to come.

Individual and corporate enterprise must suspend their privileges for the duration of the war period if the nation is to survive, just as all blocs and pressure groups must suspend their privileges for the welfare of the nation as a whole. This program is not directed against corporate enterprise, and it is not directed against labor or for the duration to be returned intact, but this would not deprive the governments of the United States and Canada would conscript all corporate wealth and its attendant institutions such as banks, trusts, and insurance companies. Monetary wealth would be frozen. The states, provinces, counties, and municipalities would remain as political units, but their financial status would be 'quick frozen' for the duration.

To ensure the continued operation of functions performed by the various states, provinces, counties, and municipalities the federal Government would have to assume all the financial indebtedness and obligations of the states, provinces, counties, and municipalities. The federal Government, in return for assuming such financial obligations, would arrogate to themselves power of levying all taxes which are now levied by them. The powers of taxation thus assumed by the federal Governments would then remain dormant for the duration owing to the general suspension of all taxes.

'Conscription of money would not mean that people's bank accounts and savings would be taken from them. These, too, would be frozen for the duration to be returned intact, but this would not deprive the security of the nation. No conscription of manpower in America can be either equitable or efficient if corporate enterprise is not likewise conscripted.

Your Congressman

James W. MOTT

Outstanding leader who has placed the First Oregon District in a position of Power in Congress.

Mott's Major Committee Control
First Ranking Republican Member, Committee on ROADS and Committee on PUBLIC LANDS—Second Ranking Member Committee on NAVAL AFFAIRS.

Member Select Committee on POST WAR MILITARY POLICY.
Member COMMITTEE ON COMMITTEES, which selects the entire Republican membership of ALL standing committees.

Mott to Succeed to Chairmanship
If the Republican Party gains a majority of seats in the House at the November election Congressman Mott will automatically become Chairman of the ROADS or the PUBLIC LANDS Committee, whichever he chooses, and will succeed to the Ranking Majority position on NAVAL AFFAIRS.

But if the Republicans of the First Oregon District should nominate another candidate, then the District will automatically LOSE EVERY COMMITTEE position it now holds, whether the Republicans gain a majority or not.

What Mott Has Done For Oregon
He gave to Oregon its entire great Permanent Naval Establishment, including Tongue Point Naval Air Base and Tillamook Naval Air Station. He gave it the Willamette Valley Flood Control

Act, the O&C Land Grant Act, the continuous improvement of its Rivers and Harbors, and the Federal Aid Legislation through which its Highways are developed. Every County and every municipality has benefited by his legislation.

Mott's Leadership Recognized
In legislation affecting the NATION in peace and war Jim Mott's leadership is recognized by both Parties in Congress.

JOSEPH W. MARTIN (Republican), The Minority Leader of the House, says:
"No man in Congress has done more for the defense of America than Jim Mott of Oregon."
CARL VINSON (Democrat), Chairman of the NAVAL AFFAIRS Committee, says:
"James W. Mott is one of the outstanding members of this Committee and of the House. His keen foresight and timely vision in the planning of legislation which has now proved so vital to the Nation, and his Unfailing Ability to get that Legislation Enacted, mark him as a National Legislator of the Highest Rank."

Jim Mott a World War Veterans
A veteran himself of World War I, Congressman Mott's distinguished record in Veteran Legislation is known of every Veteran organization. He is now vigorously supporting the WORLD WAR II VETERANS BILL OF RIGHTS sponsored by these Organizations.

To Fathers and Mothers of Our Boys at War
The future of your boy may well depend on whether you and he are represented in Congress by men who have demonstrated their ability to enact legislation for the welfare of veterans, and to hold that legislation against ALL OPPOSITION. Jim Mott has done that and will continue to do it.

War and Post War Congress
Congressman Mott will continue to devote his demonstrated skill, energy and experience to prosecute the war to total victory in the shortest possible time; to judge every act by its contribution to the war effort; to prevent strikes and all other hindrances to that effort; to cooperate with other sovereign nations in maintaining and enforcing permanent peace; to perpetuate free enterprise; to fight Bureaucracy; and to preserve Constitutional, Representative Government in America.
