WITH THE FIFTH ARMY, ITALY.—"A vehicle is a vehicle," said Pfc. Felix Purzyck of Camden, N. J., as he pushed his baby buggy loaded with a mortar and ammunition into Fondi, Italy.

The Germans had been in rapid retreat for several days, and Private Purzyck was getting tired lugging heavy stuff. So when he found in a little hillside town a four-wheeled carriage built for bambinos, he loaded it up and advanced with his company, keeping in route formation.

"Private enterprise can and will provide adequate employment if afforded opportunity to make enough profits to cause enough investment."—Samuel O. Dunn, publisher, American Builder.
