Huserik Boys in Service

George Huserik, coxswain, of route 2, Portland, is credited with landing the first boatload of troops on Leyte in the recent Philippine invasion. He is serving aboard a coast guard-manned transport in the Pacific.

Coxswain Huserik graduated in the 1939 class from Beaverton high school. Four brothers Louis, Andy, Rudolph and John also attended Beaverton high and are in active service. John was home recently suffering from wounds received in the South Pacific area. A sister, Anna, is attending Beaverton high school. George is a son of Mrs. Anna Huserik.

Annual Hearing State Game Commission
The annual hearing of the Oregon State Game Commission in regard to angling regulations will be held at ten o'clock, Saturday morning, January 13, 1945, as specified by statute. At this time the Commission will consider the 1945 seasons, bag limits and the other regulations affecting the taking of game fish in the state. The hearing will be open to the general public.
