AMERICAN HEROES

by JULIAN OLLENDORFF

In the crushing advance of American Armies in France, T/Sgt. Frank M. Burford, led a small group against a bristling machine-gun strong point, knocking out two emplacements and killing four Nazis. Later another position was routed and two killed. The group pushed on until halted by a Battalion Commander. Sgt. Burford, cited by the Army for gallantry in action, deserves the support that only War Bonds can furnish. Buy War Bonds. U. S. Treasury Department be labor-saving in effect. They will result in fewer people being employed. Since the November Election, even the Government has had the courage to tell women workers that they will be laid off first. Bankers and investors who have been counting on a big foreign postwar demand are realizing that this is possible only by their loaning money to European Governments.

When Congressmen were home for Christmas, they explained that most of our Allies are, more or less, communistic. These Congressmen asked their constituents if the U. S. should loan these Allies money to start socialistic and nationally-owned industries? What has happened in Belgium, Greece and elsewhere is making many ask for what we are fighting.

People are beginning to wonder whether the talk by Churchill and Roosevelt demanding unconditional surrender is either Christian or wise? We are coming to realize that world peace will exist only as every nation surrenders unconditionally to God, rather than to the British Empire or to Stalin or even to us Americans.

Postwar National Income

Talk about a postwar national income of $160 billions continues. Such talk is crazy. With the inevitable postwar depression in agriculture, railroads, shipping, aviation, and all kinds of war work, there will be much unemployment. This can temporarily be relieved by more government borrowing and inflation, but would mean continued high taxes. Some day taxpayers will rebel. The only permanent cure for unemployment is for most cities to throw out their present School Boards and train children to work and think instead of to play and complain.

1945 business will not be up to 1944 probably off a little more than 10%. The stock market may suffer a "communist scare" sometime during 1945, but many selected stocks should ultimately sell at higher figures than now prevailing. Commodity prices will strengthen until Germany collapses. There will be many labor strikes as the "take-home" pay declines; but hourly rates will hold up. Building prospects are especially bright. I am bullish on suburban real estate and small subsistent farms. We have much for which to be thankful, but from now on we should think soberly. If our losses in Europe will make us do so, they will be a blessing in disguise.

More than ten million dimes contributed by the American people was spent by the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis in 1944 to provide the best of modern care and treatment for all victims of the epidemic. Your dimes are again solicited this year, January 14-31.
