'Gold' Bricks Prove Principally Brass

EUFAULA, ALA. — Assayists said that 10 yellow metal bricks, uncovered by a Negro plowing in a field near here and believed to be gold, were made up mostly of brass. The bricks contained "some" gold but were not worth $7,500, the estimated value given them by local bankers.

The Low Down From Hickory Grove

You know, if it would ever so happen that we get a proposal out of our old Spendville-by-the-River, D. C., that we gotta watch our pennies versus taking a high dive into some new experiment that will cost millions, it will upset the old idea that you gotta bite a dog to be news. Your offshoot who is getting ready to vote now for the first time, would be non-plussed. So far as the young generation knows, and since they been knee high to a duck, all that the Govt. does, is spend. So far as they know, Sambo never had a piggy bank when he was growing up. It is a half-way insult to the Father of our Country that his name-sake town has turned out as it has—that is what we are beginning to think here around Hickory. There is a kind of movement gettin' under way here to have the name changed, officially. We are kinda settled on 'Spendville' as the best name. Anybody agreem' with us folks here and having the address of his Congressman and thinking that the Old Boy might be there versus galivantin' around over the country, better drop the gent a post card and ask him what he thinks. Yours with the low down, JO SERRA

To Take Active Part in Cancer Control Campaign

Oregon will take an active part in the $5,000,000 national "Cancer Control" campaign, April 16 to 30 inclusive, according to David B. Simpson of Norris, Begge and Simpson, Portland, who is managing the American Cancer's drive in Oregon. "One out of every eight people in the United States will die of cancer," said Simpson in speaking of the coming drive, "unless we wake up and do something about it. The drive has a three-fold purpose—first, to educate every man, woman and child on the symptoms of early cancer and the necessity of immediate diagnosis and treatment; second, special service in the field of cancer; and third, cancer research."
