The writer just wants to find out how our readers feel towards your home town paper. Is it really what you wish it to be? Can you think of something to make it better? Will you suggest how? We ask these questions in hope that you will come out and suggest something, which you feel would make this paper more readable and interesting.

All the little incidents that take place in your own vicinity are news items, let us have them. Use our classified columns if you have something to sell or if you are in need of some item, or if you need help, these little ads get results I assure you.

Let's hear from you, if you have a suggestion, we can use, which will make your paper better, we'll give it a trial.

Nice 'Bracelet' Fit; Locksmith to Rescue

DENVER.—A peace officer left his handcuffs on the front seat of a car he took to a garage for repair. The repairman's 15-year-old son saw the cuffs and tried them on. After a fruitless search for the sheriff and a tryout of keys at the police department, a locksmith was called to free the youth.

"On the right—form platoon!" roared the sergeant. The recruit carried out some kind of a maneuver which left the sergeant speechless. Then his voice returned—"All right—now take your partners for a dance."—EX.

If I Be Lifted Up

"And I, if I be lifted up, from the earth, will draw all men unto Me." So said our Lord. All men—Rich Man—Poor Man—Thief—Doctor—Lawyer—Merchant—Chief. See them come, all kinds from all nations. And what is it that draws them? Ask this man who confesses to a murder. Said he—"These hands are red with blood. Years ago I had part in a lynching. I was the man who did the hanging." So he tells it and Christ drew this man to Himself and gave him pardon and peace. How did He? ONE—Christ was more than man. He was God the Father, dwelling here among us in flesh and blood. The Son of Man. He named Himself—related to all mankind. TWO—He was a Man of Sorrow and acquainted with grief. He suffered the woes of this life and knew the common lot. THREE—He was tempted at every point like as we, yet without sin. FOUR—Through love for us, He paid out His blood to save us from our sins. For God so loved you and the man lowest down, that he gave his only begotten Son, that if you believe on Him, you shall not perish but have eternal life. YOUR HEART MUST SPEAK—"If I die this minute, I die with all my sins blotted out by the blood of Christ, God's Son and that being so, certain of eternal life." KNOW YOUR BIBLE. When your heart so speaks, you have eternal life—feelings or no feelings. YOUR HEART MUST KNOW. Now look utterly to Christ to see you through. Live by Power From On High. So comes the new day with its joy, hope, cheer and the peace that passeth understanding. This space paid for by a Seattle business man. If you would have a part in upholding and extending this Gospel by mail, send your sum, large or small.
