Yank Dentist Braves

Guns to Pull G.I.'s Tooth

WITH THE 43RD INFANTRY DIVISION, ROSARIO, LUZON. — Capt. John S. Egenberger of Omaha, Neb., a regimental dentist, heard a report that a Yank infantryman was suffering a toothache in a foxhole on hotly contested Hill No.
600 near here.

Captain Egenberger crawled and crept half a mile through artillery and sniper fire, found the foxhole and patient, administered novocaine and yanked out the tooth. He offered to evacuate the infantryman, but the latter said, "I'd rather stay here than go back through what you just came through."
Captain Egenberger crawled back alone.

Not so long ago, the U. S. army had a motor truck for every 90 men. . . today there's a motor vehicle for every 9 men.

Lights of New York

by L. L. STEVENSON

Around the Town: Pretty Patti Pickens getting her lovely daughter Jane framed—that is, Jane's picture —at a Fifty-seventh street art shop.

Blonde Miriam Hopkins in a brown study in the Pierre's Blue Lounge. . . In the Pierre's Oval Room, lanky Ray Bolger sitting quietly and using one of his bony knees as a temporary hatrack. . .
Diva Helena Bliss at Sardi's, wearing a pin of chiming silver bells on the lapel of her beaver coat—she's got furs that jingle, jangle, jingle . . . and her pert little pink hat looks exactly like an eraser. . . In front of the Colony, Morton Downey dipping into a jingling pocket for a tip for the doorman and coming up with one 50-cent piece and three old campaign buttons. . . Paul Whiteman, who'll soon be off for California, pausing in a Rockefeller Center barbershop to pick up a little West Coast tan, courtesy of a sun lamp.

Cuff Notes: Mrs. Richard V. Cula-han, widow of the New York Times Washington correspondent who preceded Arthur Krock, is now an employee of the War Finance Division of the Treasury Department. . .
She probably knows more about the country than her late husband did —her job is to route all the special bond shows for the Sixth War Loan Drive via railroad or plane. . .
The large picture of Alan Ladd in the lobby of the Paramount Theater is well covered with feminine lipstick and of the collection, three hit the bull's eye. Is Frankie slipping?
. . . Herchel Martin, male half of the dance team of Lemarr and Martin, currently at Lo Conga, was toting a professional football before he went in for the ballet. . . A former All-American halfback, Martin played for the Giants after being graduated from the University of Missouri in 1931.

Here & There: David Cowles, laden with kitchenware for his Penguin Country Club at Glen Cove, L. I., muttering that when he announced that his club would open around about Thanksgiving, he was under the impression that the "calendar of my ancestors, the Pilgrim Fathers, was being followed.
These new fangled notions of advancing Thanksgiving Day a week have thrown me completely off balance. I can't take things like that at my age." . . The new opening is set for next week—he hopes. . .
Arlene Francis, the beauty with the brains, gorging herself on a huge ice cream concoction at Toots Shor's. She can afford to—her recently finished five-times-a-day routine at the Capitol theater proved so strenuous that she dropped ten pounds without even trying.

Patriots: On Pearl Harbor day, members of the Boys' Club of America assembled before the honor roll, which has a prominent place in every club, to pay tribute to the 150,000 former club members who are fighting for their country in all parts of the world and to dedicate themselves to the ideals for which so many of their fellow members have already given their lives.
. . . Overheard: A businessman to his secretary, "Get Washington on the phone and clear my desk so I can pound it." . . During his South Pacific tour, Jack Benny held up a large picture of Fred Allen for G.I.'s to look at. "This is what you are fighting for," he declared. . .
Observation: Gals on Broadway can change from waltz timing to two-timing in no time at all. . . William Bendix says he once tried to be a detective but his only deductions were from his bank account.

Faces & Places: Senor and Senora Diega, son-in-law and daughter of President Trujillo of San Domingo, visiting their friends, Estelle and LeRoy, at the Iridium Room. . .
A little later, Ronald Coleman and his lovely wife also come up and visit the two dancers and Coleman dances with Estelle. . . Barry Wood and Al Woods on Oak Room duo. . . Marion Hutton at the Cub Room showing Sherman Billingsleys sister Betty's V-Mail letter while Marion's ex-music teacher looks on.
. . . A few years ago, the teacher told Marion to forget about singing and get a good clerical job. At her Paramount engagement, Marion drew a mere $2,500 a week. . .
"Bloomer Girl" star, Celeste Holm, walking up Broadway wearing neither hoopskirt nor bloomers, she having substituted for her musical comedy apparel a mighty chic little late 1944 outfit.

Addenda: There's grief at the Hotel Lexington, official word having been received that John ("Strawberry") Saubry, one of the hotel's most popular bellboys, was killed in action in Germany. He's the fifth Hotel Lexington employee lost.

THE OLD JUDGE SAYS...

"When you think of the sacrifices our fighting men are making in this war, it's hard to figure out how we'll ever repay them, isn't it, Judge?"

"Yes, it really is, Tom. There are only certain things we can do. Such as...write them cheerful letters often. Send them favorite gifts from time to time. Work harder than ever to provide them with everything they need to finish their job quickly. Buy more and more War Bonds... especially during the current drive...to pay for the ammunition and fighting equipment they must have."

"All that still seems kind of small compared with what they're doing for us, Judge."

"True, but it's about all we older folks back home can do, Tom. Except one more thing. And that is to be sure our fighting men come home to the same kind of country their letters tell us they want. Nothing changed that they don't want changed while they're away and unable to express their wishes."
