Tigers Lose 11-4 To City Chinese Team

By BILL MALLOY
Before a large Sunday crowd, the famed All City Chinese team from Portland gave the Gaytown Tigers a shellacking on the Beaverton diamond.

A. W. Dewitt, president of the Gaytown Tigers, announced that this Chinese team will be out here in a few weeks playing the Tigers again in a benefit game.

Make Them Longer

A number of sailors and soldiers are always complaining about the length of letters which they receive from the folks at home.

The Low Down From Hickory Grove
You know, there is more talk going on now and less being said, than normal—anyway, in the striped trousers section. You don't pick up a paper but you see where another outfit is meetin' to solve whatever it was that was solved a couple weeks ago in some other nice vacation place, by another outfit. And you read about Dumbarton Oaks, and Bretton Woods, and Mexico City, and the Mediterranean and San Francisco.
And if the folks who picked San Francisco for the big meeting place, had in mind a quiet place for heavy pondering, they are not as astute as they maybe look in their diplomatic regalia. I don't blame anybody for wanting to go to San Francisco to eat and look around—but as a quiet place to ponder, brother, it isn't. The place is overflowing with men and guns—headed for the South Pacific Hotels are bulging. And they are in a jam there with their street-car men not being polite, so the Chief of Police is gonna take a hand. Swearing at passengers must stop, he says, or it is 6 months in the cooler. And the cars are city owned.
But back to meetings. At one meeting they gassed about money—but no ordinary citizen knows what they said about it. But we do know that gold money, which used to be real dinero, is illegal to have in your pocket. Meetin's are funny.
Yours with the low down,
JO SERRA
