

The present generation of school children will be the adults who decide whether or not this war was fought to establish a better world or merely to make the world safe for stultifying restriction of individual freedom.—Fred G. Clark.

Yung Wang, 23-year-old Chinese girl, imprisoned in terror stricken Jap-occupied Hong Kong, made her bid for freedom by disguising as a Buddhist priest. For 40 days she deluded the Jap troops and finally reached Chungking safely.

Two thirds of the world's merchant fleet flies the American flag. The United States ships 8,000 tons of war materials an hour, 24 hours a day!

Forest fires will be fought in post-war days by trained woodsmen dropped by parachute into threatened areas. The forest industries' plan of replenishing the woods as timber crops are harvested requires constant war on fire—forest enemy No. 1.

Print Dress Will Swell Bond Funds

Make warm weather togs. Every extra dollar you save this way for War Bonds hits the Axis—raises your glamour quotient, too. The new easy shoulder, square-cut neckline and dirndl skirt capture the summer mood of this blue and white bow print. Pockets are hidden behind the self-ruffling of the skirt. Patterns at local stores.
