Too Much Washing Bad For Kitchen Linoleum

Manufacturers say that more linoleum is scrubbed and soaked away than is worn away with ordinary use, reports Miss Lutz, home management specialist at OSC.

A linoleum floor kept well waxed may be kept clean with daily dusting with a dry mop and only occasional washing. Dirt tracked into the kitchen sometimes makes more frequent washing necessary, but wiping up anything spilled immediately will save much mopping.
If soap is necessary use a mild type rather than laundry soap, which dries out the oil in the linoleum and makes it brittle. Don't use gritty cleaners as they scratch the surface and open the pores so grease and dirt works into the material.

"Unless the manufacturers take the bull by the horns, or Congress revolts and slaps down the OPA, we are going to have a serious deflation and unnecessary unemployment," Oregon City (Ore.) Banner-Courier.

British Election-Stock Market

Babson Discusses Importance of Churchill's Defeat

Babson Park, Mass., August 17—When Churchill's defeat was announced by radio, the stock market started to crumble. When, however, investors began to realize that it would take years for England to get its socialist plans into action and perhaps then would fail to succeed, these same people began to buy back securities. The market has since returned to normal. There are several reasons for this.

England sure to inflate. Have long thought that inflation is inevitable; in fact it is going on every day. Nothing can stop it except a great spiritual awakening which will cause us to put the good of all before our own selfishness. I, however, now see no sign of this. Hence, the United States is headed for higher prices, higher wages, higher rents and higher stock values. The people of the world are "on the march" demanding inflation.

I am more sure of this than ever since the Labor Government of England won by such a large majority. This will enable them to take over the Bank of England and issue all the money they need for their socialist experiments. Whether or not these will be a success, no one now knows. Russia is still in the test tube, notwithstanding what her friends say. But for the next few years, while the experiment is being tried, jobs should be plentiful and money should flow like water. Stocks should sell higher, not only because of their intrinsic merit, but because wise Englishmen will shift from their English stocks to American stocks.

Stocks Not Too High. Compared with panic prices of ten years ago, the stock market now seems high to many conservative people. This is because the stock average was only 30 in 1932 compared with 110 today. Yet, only as far back as 1937, these same stocks sold at about 130; while in 1929 they sold for 280. With the British Government and the Bank of England backing inflation, some stocks may well again sell at 1929 highs.

"What should I buy" you ask. Well, the safest procedure is to diversify among a wide list, buying the leading stocks in fifteen or more industries, omitting the rails, airplane manufacturing and shipping stocks. If you pinned me down to three groups I should advise the Merchandising Group, especially the variety chains, the Insurance Group, especially the casualty stocks, and well-managed Real Estate. These are the groups in which I am investing my own money.

Billions Awaiting Investment. Forty-five years ago there were only about one or two billions of "loose change" in pockets and cash drawers. It took about fifty years to build this up to seven billions. During the past five years this loose change has jumped from seven billions to twenty-eight billions! This means it has quadrupled in five years. During this same five years bank deposits have doubled and are now over $100,000,000,000.

This nearly equals the assessed values of every acre of land and every building of every kind in the entire United States. When one considers that there are no more securities available for purchase than there were five years ago, it seems as if higher prices for stocks and land are inevitable. Sooner or later this loose change is going to seek investment. Churchill's defeat should hasten the day.

Low Interest Rates. Let us consider interest rates. It was not long ago that government bonds paid over 4%; savings bank accounts paid 3%; while we got 2% on our checking accounts. Today these interest rates are down to 2%, 1% and zero, lower than ever before in the history of the world. Yet anyone can buy today good corporation bonds to yield 3½% and good stocks to yield more. People should soon get tired of leaving their money idle in the banks at 1% or at no interest when they can get so much more from good securities. When the public realizes this, the demand for good dividend paying stocks should greatly increase.

Advice to Young People. One thing which I must mention in closing is this:—The British elections will cause most of Europe to follow with socialistic experiments. The movement will temporarily cast its shadow in the United States. This means that every family should own a little fertile land and every young person should become an expert in some profession, art or trade.
