A Welcome Christmas Gift for Anyone

The Willamette Orchards of Tigard, Oregon, are ready to fill orders for their gift boxes, containing walnuts, filberts and holly from their famous orchard, for Christmas gifts.

Out west in the valleys and on the hills of Oregon, various products of unexcelled quality are produced under most favorable conditions of soil and climate. Of these products walnuts, filberts and holly find wide acceptance in national markets, and, in normal times abroad.

P. E. Lewis started these orchards on his farm near Tigard over 34 years ago, and his business has grown. Several years ago he started selling these gift boxes and now he ships them all over the world.

Radio industry have developed "soft speakers" for under the pillow to enable hospital patients to hear radio programs.
