THE OLD JUDGE SAYS...

DICK: "I wonder how the distillers feel about that new movie built around an alcoholic."

OLD JUDGE: "It's funny you asked that, Dick... I was just reading a piece about it."

DICK: "What did it say?"

OLD JUDGE: "A very sensible statement. It said the beverage distillers are fully aware of this problem and are cooperating in every way possible to help solve it. The alcoholic is to the beverage distilling industry what the reckless driver is to the automobile industry. There is nothing wrong with the automobile, but in the hands of a man who doesn't know how to drive it or is reckless, it becomes a menace. Likewise, it's not the use but the abuse of alcoholic beverages that causes trouble."

DICK: "Wonder why it is most men can drink moderately and others can't?"

OLD JUDGE: "Intensive research at a great university has shown that most excessive drinkers are really sick people. They are suffering from some physical, social or emotional upset. And great strides have been made in developing clinical methods of helping these unfortunate people."

Mother Born Again

Far from home and Mother, the boy listened to the man who came over noon-times and read to them out of the Bible. And one day, away down inside the fellow there was a stirring. The fingers of his heart reached out and laid hold on Christ as the Saviour who had so loved him as to die for his sins. God honored the fellow's faith and took up in him. By that the chap was born again, born of God, from above and made one of the people of God.

See the new life work out. First the chap quit his wandering to take a steady job. He saved up to go back to the old home and Mother. The night before he sailed, his countrymen gave him a banquet and handed him sums of money for their folks over there. Back among them, he told what the Lord had done for him in dying for his sins and in giving him a glad heart. And out of it, his Mother also turned to the Lord, not only because of what he told her but also from his coming out of the old rowdy ways into Christ-likeness.

Ye must be born again. I verily verily say unto thee—YE MUST BE BORN AGAIN.
