THE SMART FAMILY

"YOU know something Joan Smart said to me set me thinking hard. She was getting Hal—that's her youngest—an after-school snack from her refrigerator. And I said—kidding—because I've known the Smarts for years—I don't see any 'bottles' there—where do you keep 'em? And then Joan said, Of course, Sally, you know we don't keep 'em anyplace—but if I did, I would be ashamed to open my refrigerator to the children. I would feel like I was actually running a liquor store—in my kitchen... and inviting minors to participate. And maybe that is something for all of us parents to think over—hard!"

Christ's Turn Next

The place was packed out with a jam about the door, for the common people always flocked in to hear Jesus. Now came four bearing a paralytic on his pad of a bed. Go back, boys, for the place is packed out. But no—they must get the poor fellow in somehow. Then Jesus will see and have pity. And at one word from Holy lips, the man will walk.

See them tug the fellow up the outside stairs, see them tear back the tile from the flat roof, see them lower the man down, down, down to the very feet of Jesus. They had done what they could and it was Christ's turn next. SEEING THEIR FAITH, He told the man—Take up thy bed and walk. Nerve centers, long dead came to life, muscles long useless tensed. Life flowed in and the man sprang to his feet and walked. Lk. 5:17-26.

And to-day also, Christ makes it His turn next. First settle it down in your heart that Christ died for your sins to clean you with God. So you came into the circle of blessing. Now, as redeemed, step ahead into the thing that gives God the glory and when you come to the end of yourself, Christ makes it His turn next. Truly—"Whosoever believeth on Him shall not be ashamed."
