New Stock Yards At Beaverton

Many of the bustling cities of the country including Chicago, St. Louis, Portland—and now Beaverton handle plenty of beef through their stock yards. According to reports, Beaverton is the new comer.

Why Not? Situated on two transcontinental rail lines S. P. and O-E (S. P. & S.), Beaverton is booming—the new stock yards are being built about one-half mile East of town between the two highways. Everybody is hungry for plenty of fresh beef—even the greyhounds are barking for hamburger.

Aloha-Huber P-T. A. Meeting

The Aloha-Huber P-T. A. opened the meeting by Barbara Hanna, a girls scout, leading the flag salute. Mrs. John Randa presented the dancer's badge to Jane Bemis, Sally Simmons, Ruby Taylor, Beverly Smith, Doris Schlaefli, Ina Faye Herrington and Barbara Hanna, Norma Emerick, Joan Ferguson, Bonnie Pierce, Joan Belcher, Barbara Cat-tis and Janet Wooten.

A little skit was cleverly dramatized by several of the girls scouts. The play was "Interviewing a Servant" and Janet Wooten was the lady who wished to hire a maid. They showed a very good talent.

The business meeting opened by Mrs. Charles Wilson reading the minutes. Mrs. Phayre Gregory gave her treasury report. Mrs. Chester Loar reported that the cafeteria would close the 15th of May. The prize for the room with the largest representation of parents or teachers went to the 5th grade taught by Mrs. E. Gildeen.

The officers installed were Mrs. Bill North, President; Mrs. Phayre Gregory as P-T. A. Treasurer; Mrs. Herman Zoet, Secretary; Mrs. Audrey Smith, Cafeteria Treasurer; Mrs. Wheeler Beatty who is a past president installed the officers in a very nice manner.
