An interior view of the new Beaverton Hardware Store which is having its formal opening in Saturday, shows Marble Cook, co-owner in the new business, with Clyde Elliott, and on the right is Cecil Martin, salesman. Modern methods of displaying merchandise, with nearly all available articles arranged so that they may be seen readily is one of the features of this new store.

Mr. Cook is known by most people in this section of the state as he has been associated with the high school football coaching profession both in Beaverton and in Portland for the last several years.
