

REEDVILLE

Return

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Trueblood, former residents of Reedville, have been visiting here recently looking after their property. Both Mr. and Mrs. Trueblood will be teaching this coming year in the state of Washington.

Have Birthday Party

A birthday party was given on Saturday, August 12, in honor of Mrs. J. A. Sterzer, of Reedville at her home. Mrs. L. Uppinghouse was in charge of refreshments. Ten guests attended.

CEDAR MILL

Changes Hands

The Cornell grocery store is now being run under new management. Mrs. Margaret Stark is the new proprietress.

Have Style Show

At a birthday luncheon given recently in honor of Mrs. Gretchen Gallagher, the "Stitch and Chatter" 4-H sewing girls modeled their dresses which they have made, to an accompaniment played by Ronald Kingsley. Mrs. Keith Kingsley is the leader of the group.

The girls work is unusually good and will be on display at the county fair.

Daughter Visits

Mr. and Mrs. Al Reed have as house guests their daughter, Mrs. Jim Rice, and their small grandson, from Lewiston, Idaho.

Club Holds Meeting

The Grange Home Economics club met recently at the home of Mrs. Gladys Pollette to work on quilts to be sold at the bazaar. A group of nine ladies attended. The next meeting will be held in September at the home of Mr. Peterkort.

School Opening

School is to open in Orenco on September 9, this year.

The school house has been shingled and is all ready to go, just in time, since the work was completed just this week.

Visiting Relatives

Mrs. Virginia Lawrence and her daughters, Shirley Mae and Betty Jean of Sweet Home, are visiting at the James E. Wright home. They expect to be here a week.
