COOPER MOUNTAIN

Getting Ready for Bazaar

The ladies of the Rebekah Social and Needle club met at the home of Mary Cavaness last Friday.

A pot luck dinner was served at the noon hour to the 24 members present.

The rest of the day was spent in cutting out and sewing aprons, tying a quilt and also doing embroidery work for the big bazaar to be held Saturday, November 2. A busy and pleasant day was the vote of the ladies in attendance.

Sunday School Notes
Cooper Mountain Sunday school had an attendance of 22 last Sunday and the collection was $34.00.

They report $17 sent to the Latin American and the same amount to the Sudan Interior mission. Next month the money will go to China Inland mission and Old Revival home in southern California.

Picking Filberts
John Peyton is harvesting his crop of filberts. This is the first picking.

Community Card Party
The community card party which was given last Saturday was a great success. An enjoyable evening was spent and they are looking forward to the next card party which will be given the first Saturday in November.

Cooper Mountain Hunters
Laurence Davis and party account for six deer and one bear. Willard Livermore and his company got seven. Ed Jacobsen is ahead one. But sad to relate Bob Griffith, Claude Bradbury and Lyle Mann did not have such good luck but they did enjoy the trip.

New Daughter
Mrs. Hallie Holcomb came home Friday from the hospital with her new baby daughter Candace Ann.

Ill at Home
Wes Bany has been confined at home with a sore throat. He is being treated by a Portland specialist.

Hostess
Miss Louise Hesterlee was hostess on the evening of Sept. 26 at a pink and blue shower for Mrs. Barbara Hill. Many lovely gifts were received and delightful evening enjoyed by all.

What the Men are Doing
Hazel Dale is well represented in the "hunting field". Among those who enjoyed the hunt were Ralph Calhoun and son Jimmy; Claude Webber and Tom Miller.
