S.W. Cashmur Homes Looted

Residents of S.W. Cashmur Lane were shocked to find that many homes had been broken into Saturday night, October 19. Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Diller were out for the evening, as were Col. and Mrs. C. A. Larkin and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur T. Samuels. All returned to find their homes ransacked.

The only things taken in each case were children's banks and any loose money.

Mr. and Mrs. Gunneburg returned Sunday from a trip to Tacoma, Washington, to find their home in the same condition. The Salts family are still back east on a month's trip. Police found that their home has also been broken into.

So far the thief has not been found, though police feel that they will soon locate him.

STORK CLUB NEWS

On October 13, Mary C. arrived in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Donald E. Kelley of Beaverton.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard H. Parker of Ridgeway Drive announce the birth of Richard H. Jr., who was born on October 12.

Stephen D. is the name of the son born to Mr. and Mrs. Earl T. Wilson of Beaverton on October 10.

Being congratulated are Mr. and Mrs. Stanley M. Rickard on the birth, October 2, of Gary L. The Rickards are Beaverton residents.

WEST SLOPE NOTES

First No Deer — Now No Fish

The neighbors of Mr. A. W. Holeman are becoming very concerned about his hunting skill or lack of it. Three times he has gone deer hunting and all preparations have been made for a big neighborhood venison dinner. And three times he has come home — no deer.

Even Robert Pound, who was home for the week end from Oregon State, and his father, Mr. Norman Pound, weren't able to help the situation any. They went fishing and came home with — no fish.

Administrators' Sacrament

Rev. Werner Fritz of the St. Matthews Lutheran church administered the sacrament of baptism as a part of the morning service Sunday, October 20, to Gretta Faye, Ruth Anne, and Barbara Louise Robinson, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. John Robinson; and Lester Charles, the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Schell of Cooper Mountain. The sponsors for the Robinson children were Mrs. Helen Welch and Mrs. Mildred Fritz; and for the Schell baby, Mr. and Mrs. William Hatfield.

Plan Thank Offering

The annual Thank Offering service of the St. Matthews Lutheran church will be held Sunday morning, October 27. The Missionary Guild of the church is planning the program, under the direction of Mrs. Richard Paul.

The Missionary Guild of the St. Matthews Lutheran church is also in charge of the program and refreshments Tuesday, October 29, 1:30 p.m. at the meeting of the Women's Auxiliary of the Lutheran Welfare association, 73 N.E. Russell, Portland.

A Fish Story

A fish story to end all fish stories came from Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Van Slyck of White Pine Lane, who recently spent a week's vacation at Gold Beach. While they were there they caught two salmon, the one Mrs. Van Slyck brought in weighing 37 pounds! (Mr. Ripley, please note.) They also had the exciting adventure of going up the Rogue river on a mail boat, as far as Agnes, Oregon. They reported lots of sunshine, and perfect weather, in general.

Church Has Anniversary

The Valley Community United Presbyterian church will hold a special service Sunday, October 27, 10:30 a.m., in recognition of the fourth anniversary of the organization of their congregation. All members and friends are urged to attend.

During the afternoon and evening a picked group of workers will call on all members who have not yet turned in their pledges to the church.

Move to Portland

Dr. Charles Barron and his wife and baby, who have been staying with Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Kilborn of Maple Lane, have moved into a house in northeast Portland. Dr. Barron, a major in the medical corps, has recently returned from army duty in England, and will be in residency at the Veterans' Hospital.

Trip Cut Short

The recent trip of Mr. and Mrs. Allen Armfield to Idaho was cut short by the serious illness of her father, Mr. Charles of Eugene. Mrs. Armfield spent some time with him in Eugene. He has now recovered sufficiently to return to his home from the hospital. Mr. and Mrs. Armfield have returned to their home in West Slope.

Surprise Party

Several friends of Mrs. Carl G. Bruntsch gathered at the Aero club last Thursday to celebrate her birthday at a luncheon given by Mrs. George Haack of the Canyon Crest apartments. Whoever said that women can't keep secrets were wrong, for this party was a complete surprise to the guest of honor!

Birthday Party

For her birthday last Saturday, Canyon Lane friends of Mrs. Richard R. McCarthy surprised her with a party. The evening was spent in looking at pictures and souvenirs the McCartys collected from their eastern trip this summer.

Discuss Finances

Thursday evening, October 24, the Valley Community United Presbyterian church held a meeting to which the entire congregation was invited to discuss the problem of completing the financing of the manse.

Visit in Eugene

Mrs. John J. Cotton of Parkview Court is in Eugene visiting her parents, who are residents of Los Angeles, but are on an Oregon business trip.

Spokane Man Claims Bride

Isabell Ann Navarro, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Fediuk of West Slope, became the bride of Albert Ralph Gardner, U.S. Navy, son of Mrs. Phoebe Gardner, in a ceremony solemnized Saturday, Oct. 19, at 8 p.m. in the Reorganized Latter Day Saints church in Portland.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a dress of light blue tulle with matching veil. She carried a prayer book with a corsage of red rosebuds. Her cousin, Mrs. Hazel Moore, was matron of honor. She carried bronze colored chrysanthemums and wore a frock of pale pink net with matching headpiece.

Elder Albert Nelson read the service before a large group of friends and relatives. Glen Haviland sang and his wife Dorothy played the wedding music.

Ray Nelson was best man. The ushers were Earl Bryson, Cliff Bryson and Bob Nelson.

Assisting at the reception in the church parlor were Mrs. Grace Bryson, Dorothy Bryson, June Darby, Faye Buchanan, Dorothy Haviland and Nan Nelson.

The couple are spending their honeymoon in Chicago. From there they go to San Francisco to complete his time in service. Following his discharge, they plan to make their home at West Slope.

Hear Praise of Goodwill Industries

Members of the Philathea class of the Valley Community church were amazed at the scope of the work done by the Goodwill Industries, as told to them by Mrs. Taylor, director of the organization, at their class meeting Tuesday evening, October 15, at the home of Mrs. J. W. Tice.

Mrs. Leah Turner, who was formerly educational director for the church, was present at the meeting as an assistant hostess. Mrs. Turner left Tuesday, October 22, for Chicago, where she plans to work in the office of her brother.

At Beach

Mr. and Mrs. George H. Fisher and daughter June have returned from a fishing trip to Nehalem.

Women Meet

On October 23, Mrs. Dean S. Truex was hostess to the Women's Society of Christian Service of the First Methodist church. Mrs. Amadee Smith and Mrs. F. L. De Harpport were assistant hostesses.

Brotherhood Night Planned

Wednesday, October 30, the St. Matthews church is planning a Brotherhood night at the church to which all men of the congregation are invited. Dr. William Schoeler and Rev. Werner Fritz are planning an interesting meeting including music, a film put out by the state highway department entitled "New Oregon Trail," and of course plenty of "coffee and."

Gideon Members Speak at Church

Sunday, October 20, the congregation of the Valley Community United Presbyterian church enjoyed hearing from two members of the Gideon society who were in Portland for their national convention.

Mr. Bob Price from Atlanta, Georgia, was the speaker at the morning service. Mr. Sam Fulton, Wisconsin, was the evening speaker at a joint meeting of the Valley Community and Multnomah congregations in the Multnomah church.

Both speakers mentioned the fine work the Gideon society has done in the past supplying Bibles to churches, hospitals, and members of the armed forces. The newest effort of the members of the Gideon society is to supply school children throughout the United States with a book containing the New Testament, the Psalms and the Proverbs.

To Attend N.B.C. Convention

H. Quenton Cox, of Sheffman Way, left by train last Friday for Chicago, where he will attend the national convention of the National Broadcasting company. From there he will go to New York to confer with N.B.C. officials, and to Washington, D.C. Mr. Cox is manager of radio station KGW.

New Residents

The Fishers are newcomers to this district, having moved to the Dinty Boyd home on Sunset Road, October 1. They are from Villa Park, Illinois, and are sure they will like Oregon much better, especially after they become acquainted.

Has Visitor

Mrs. Will T. Kirk of Birchwood Road has as her guest her sister, Mrs. W. H. Davidson, of Boise, Idaho, who has been visiting relatives near Roseburg, Oregon. Mrs. Kirk just recently returned from a few days' visit with her brother in southern Oregon.

THE GENTLEMAN IS RIGHT

and we're meeting his demands with Dacros Protected Milk... the safest package of milk you can buy. The bottle is not merely covered. It's SEALED with sturdy metal cap... air-tight, dust-proof, tamper-proof. There's complete, scientific protection for our milk after it leaves the dairy. Let one of our routemen show you what this protection means to you and your family.

Because the Dacros Cap is a genuine seal, it must be removed the first time with an opener. After that it may be snapped back on the bottle as a re-seal and removed again and again, even without an opener.
