WAA Information Bulletin

In addition, the Portland WAA office has on hand approximately 150 Waltham wrist watches remaining from the 595 recently placed on sale. They are immediately available at $14 each plus tax.

Kapok:
If you're a little short of kapok, or its principal substitute, milkweed floss, the Portland regional office can get you a million and a half pounds of it from the national WAA inventory. It is used in pillows, upholstered furniture and like products. Since it is a manufacturer's item, the minimum order is five tons.

Clothing:
Odd lots of used service apparel, an assortment of canvas products and cotton tapes are available from government surplus, the War Assets office in Portland disclosed today. Bids will be opened Nov. 15 at 10 a. m. at the regional WAA Building, Rm. 114, Swan Island.

Listed for sale are fatigue, khaki and olive drab garments, corduroy bathrobes, fibre sun and jungle type helmets, ski parkas, web and cartridge belts, packing flax and cotton tape. Minimum quantities are specified.

Beds:
Over 300 metal beds are included on a $3,500 list of new and used furniture, offered for sale by the Portland War Assets office today. Light weight, arched head and footpiece nurses' beds will sell for $4.95 each; iron beds, $1.80; and folding hospital cots, $2.25. Also for sale are wooden mess and porch benches, hospital food and water carts, folding chairs, folding bed screens, settees, steel lockers and book racks. To allow for inspection, offers to purchase will not be confirmed prior to Nov. 18. Priority claimants including World War II veterans will be given preference.

Bricks:
New bricks are selling for five cents apiece in Uncle Sam's war surplus market. War Assets has 50,000 of them stored at regional warehouses. They are offered in an "odds and ends" sale of construction materials.

Also listed are 10,000 pounds of fibre glass insulation, insulation tape, air filters, tile, wood pins, metal sash, and asbestos millboard. Padlocks

The general products division of War Assets administration today listed for sale 500 tumblers, padlocks, 1965 dozen varnish brushes, a gross of metal funnels, 10,000 feet of chain lengths and about 600 basket type lamp guards, to priority and commercial buyers.

In another sale, the industrial equipments division offered a selection of electric motors and generators valued at $2,750.

Sister Slays Sister

The two sisters lived next door to one another and yet they never spoke and when the one died, the other would not so much as go to the funeral. Years before they had some words and out of it grew this hate and to God, hate is murder. One flash of hate in a lifetime and you stand with the murderers on Judgment Day.

Now fix your eye on some low-down wretch, away off somewhere and see God prove his love for the fellow. First, God sent his only-born Son, our Lord, to die for the man. Let the fellow count Christ's death as paying the penalty for all his sins. Let him see his life-page clean. Right then and there, God sets to work to make him a new man. Right when the chap puts all his trust in Christ's death, as saving him.

Now God would save you and me, also. Just knowing about Christ is not enough. We must count Him as Lord and Saviour and trust in His death as clearing us. Then and there God gives you new life. Your part is to prove the new life. Live by the Bible and prayer and look utterly to Christ for victory over old ways and dark days. Says He—I will never leave you nor forsake you.
